|| Global Warming and Climate Change || Today's Interim Report From the UNFCCC Is a Red Alert for Our Planet: Governments Are Nowhere Close to the Level of Ambition Needed to Limit Climate Change to 01.5 Degrees and Meet the Goals of the Paris Agreement: António Guterres ||

|| Friday: February 26: 2021 || á. Nations are nowhere close to the level of action, needed to fight global warming, a UN climate action Report said on Friday, urging countries to adopt stronger and more ambitious plans to reach the Paris Agreement goals and limit the temperature rise to 01.5 degrees Celsius, by the end of the century.

The UN Framework Convention on Climate Change:UNFCCC's Initial NDC Synthesis Report measures the progress of national climate action plans, known as, Nationally Determined Contributions or NDCs, ahead of the 26th session of Conference of its Parties:COP26 this November in Glasgow. The Report found that, even, with increased efforts by some countries, the combined impact falls far short of what is needed. "Today's interim report from the UNFCCC is a red alert for our planet.

It shows, governments are nowhere close to the level of ambition, needed to limit climate change to 01.5 degrees and meet the goals of the Paris Agreement." The UN Secretary-General Mr António Guterres said on the report's findings. He said that 2021 was a make or break year to confront the global climate emergency. "The science is clear, to limit global temperature rise to 01.5 degrees Celsius, we must cut global emission by 45% by 2030, from 2010 levels." he said.

The Secretary-General called on major emitters to step up with much more ambitious emissions reductions targets for 2030 in their NDCs, highlighting that COVID-19 recovery plans offered the opportunity to build back greener and cleaner. "Decision makers must walk the talk. Long-term commitments must be matched by immediate actions to launch the decade of transformation, that people and planet so desperately need."

Mr. Guterres urged. The UNFCCC report covered submissions from countries up to December 31, 2020, showing that 75 Parties to the Framework Convention, communicated a new or updated NDC, representing approximately 30% of global greenhouse gas emissions.

Ms Patricia Espinosa, UNFCCC Executive Secretary, said that the report was a snapshot, not a full picture of the NDCs as COVID-19 posed significant challenges for many nations to complete their submissions in 2020. She added that a second report will be released prior to COP26 and called on all countries, especially, major emitters that had not yet done so, to make their submissions as soon as possible, so that their information can be included in the updated report.

"We congratulate Parties, that rose to the challenges, posed by COVID-19 in 2020, honoured their commitments under the Paris Agreement and submitted their NDCs by the deadline but, it's time for all remaining Parties to step up, fulfil what they promised to do and submit their NDCs as soon as possible." Ms Espinosa said. "If, this task was urgent before, it's crucial now." she said.

|| Asia || Myanmar's Ambassador at the United Nations Denounces the Military Coup While the UN Envoy Calls on the Body to Reject the Coup and Do Everything Possible to Restore Democracy in the Country ||

|| Friday: February 26: 2021 || ႁ. As the democratically elected leader of Myanmar, State Counsellor Daw Aung San Suu Kyi is still in detention, following the military takeover, that triggered country-wide protests, violence and arrests, the UN envoy for the country, observed on Friday, declaring that ‘democratic processes have been pushed aside’. Speaking at an informal General Assembly meeting on the Myanmar crisis, Special Envoy Ms Christine Schraner Burgener said, “I told you in 2019 that I would sound the alarm, if, necessary. This is now the case”.

“The situation in Myanmar is fragile and fluid. It is a people’s fight without arms.” Ms. Schraner Burgener strongly condemned the military’s recent steps and urged the Ambassadors to collectively send a clear signal, supporting democracy. She underscored the urgency in helping to lay the foundations of a pluralistic democracy, balanced with the complex domestic challenges of the civilian leadership. “I have tried again and again to explain the complex situation, namely that the army holds the real power.” she said. “Genuine democracy requires civilian control over the military.”

Noting that the takeover has not stabilised, she said that the international community must not lend legitimacy or recognition to this regime. She labelled it a coup, calling the military takeover and declaration of the state of emergency a clear violation of the constitution regardless of what they claim.

Recalling that the National League for Democracy: NLD had won the November election with 82% of the vote Ms. Schraner Burgener said, “There is no justification for the military’s actions and we must continue to call for the reversal of this impermissible situation, exhausting all collective and bilateral channels to restore Myanmar’s path on democratic reform.”

Responding to the Envoy, Myanmar’s Ambassador to the UN, Mr Kyaw Moe Tun, announced that he was representing not the military leadership but the NLD, saying he was speaking instead, for the democratically-elected parliamentarians of the country. Denouncing the coup, he said that the continued and strong support for the people, was imperative and appealed for all Member States and the UN, to condemn the takeover and take all strongest possible measures to stop the violent and brutal acts committed by the security forces against peaceful demonstrators and end the military coup immediately.”

His voice breaking in the General Assembly Hall, he gave the three-fingered salute adopted by protesters in Myanmar. The Ambassador said that he would join those continuing to fight for a government, which is ‘of the people, by the people, and for the people’.

Although, the UN Secretary-General had called on Myanmar’s military and police to ensure the right of peaceful assembly, hundreds of people are being detained without charges or fair trial proceedings, leaving frantic families unable to locate or contact them, according to the UN Envoy. “On-going violence, intimidation and harassment by security personnel and deliberate acts to create insecurity and instability, as well as, the enactment of draconian laws, which deprive people of their basic human rights, some of which are, also, in violation of their own Constitution, are egregious.” she said.

Among other grievances, Ms Schraner Burgener pointed to the release of some 23,000 prisoners, associated with political murders as regretful and the ensuing chaos as a lost opportunity for an inclusive response to the COVID-19 pandemic. With her unique access to key stake-holders, she has directly relayed international concerns, advocated for dialogue and requested a country visit in which she meets with detained government leaders, which was rejected.

“It seems they want to continue making large-scale arrests and have been coercing people to testify against the NLD Government. This is cruel and inhumane.” Ms Schraner Burgener urged influential Member States to step up, saying they had a collective responsibility towards the people of Myanmar and safeguard their democratic aspirations”.

“If, there is any escalation in terms of military brutality against people exercising their basic rights, let us act swiftly and collectively. At the same time, independent UN human rights experts called on the military to end the violent crackdown on peaceful protests. “The people of Myanmar have the right to protest peacefully and express their discontent with the military coup. We call on the military to refrain from using force against peaceful protests, stop using live bullets against protesters immediately and respect their right to peaceful protest.”

The experts spoke against the arbitrary detention and harassment of those voicing their dissent or organizing and participating in peaceful protests as well as the journalists covering the events. “Deliberate attacks on journalists and their arbitrary detention are serious violations of international human rights law and must immediately stop.”

The experts noted a worrying series of regulatory measures, that would entrench military control over internet information and strip individuals of their human rights. “These vague and overly broad provisions would give the military unfettered power to censor dissenting voices on social media, disrupt the internet at will and access user information with no restraint or regard for their right to privacy.” they said.

“We warn the military junta that those, who are responsible for repression and killing of peaceful protesters, as well as, the detention of government officials and journalists will be held accountable before international jurisdictions.”vthe experts said.

This Is the Body of Work, by Munayem Mayenin, That Has Brought Into Existence the Philosophy and Vision of Humanics

Dehumanisation of Humanity: Volume One: Published: July: 2007: 978-1-4477-1330-2

Mayenin worked and developed the very critique of capitalism and Marxism while at university in which he had envisioned the world's future in humanics for humanity to reach and achieve liberty and equality for all humanity, which capitalism has continually slaughtered and Marxism failed desperately, even, to understand, let alone, to know or show how to seek and achieve them. Some of these works were published in publications in the early 00s and the volume was published as a book in 2007. There are three other volumes of this planned work, yet to be published.

Humanics The Foundation: Volume One: Published: December 06: 2017: ISBN: 978-0-244-34575-4

This piece of work elaborated the philosophy of humanics and presented the idea of human enterprise and how it works to enable humanity to conduct the human economical endeavours in humanics.

Humanics The Humanicsonomics: Volume Two: Published: June 12: 2018: ISBN: 978-0-244-48334-0

This is the political economics or humanicsonomics of humanics in human enterprise. This volume presents the political economics of humanics and envisioned world's future as two distinct phases: pre-humanical or Kapitalawnomics phase in which capitalism is saved from pseudonomics and brought under the absolute and complete control and power of the rule of law so to make it serve the people at all times and not the rich and through this phase, humanity brings into existence the humanical Building-Block Foundational Human Rights and end capitalism's Poverty Paradigm, that causes all of the high-cruelties, high-brutalities and high-barbarities, that are inflicted on the vast number of humanity on this earth. Further to this, this work advances the system and mechanism of human enterprise and envisioned at the end of the development of Kapitalawnomics human societies will have developed enough to be able and equipped to try and seek to bring into existence humanical societies, that will begin to form a grid of humanical societies into a universal humanical civilisation on earth.

The Humanics Elleesium Declaration 2019: The Humanicsxian Manifesto: Published: April 06: 2019: ISBN: 978-0-244-76474-6

This short piece of work nano-summarised the entire body of Munayem Mayenin's works on humanics. This calls on the working humanity of the world to rise, organise and united under new and humanical political forces, parties and organisations to seek and try to bring about a humanical world movement to lead humanity to equality and liberty.

Humanics The Humanicsovics: Volume Three: To Be Published Later This Year

This volume presents the political philosophy of humanics and the means to deliver that political philosophy by and through humanicsovics, humanical direct form of democracy without party politics whereby each and every individual human being becomes his:her own High Representative and they all run their society's human affairs management together as individuals, working together as scientists and mathematicians without any political parties.

Alphansum Sovereign Necessarius: Published April 14: 2020: ISBN: 978-0-244-58241-8

Although, this large volume is of metaphysical work, it has brought the whole humanical universal view in a harmonious outlook, unifying all expressions, fields, areas and arenas of human existence and in this process this work envisioned the coming into existence the new branches of science, that has already been mentioned.

Laranska The Anatomy of Fear: Novel: Published: January 2009: ISBN: 978-1-4477-1426-2

No Man's Land's Bloom: Play: Published: May 2010: ISBN: 978-1-4477-0903-9

United Colours of Blood: Screenplay: Published: January 2009: ISBN: 978-1-4477-1615-0

Larantia Poetry of Anatophysiophilosophicamonimayareginata: A Magnum of a Planned Volume of 850 Sonnets About All Branches of Medicine: Currently Having Few Hundred Sonnets: First Published: October 14, 2016: ISBN: 978-1-326-28882-2

In his other major bodies of works, that are yet to be published Mayenin has worked on further in elaborating the psychology and social psychology of the zoohumanity, that capitalism and all the dehumanisations it has inflicted on humanity through its enforcement of inequality and the absence of liberty. These as yet unpublished works include: Psychology of Zoohuman, Humanical Jurisprudence, Sociology of Evil, Economics of Squalors: The High-Cruelties High-Brutalities and High-Barbarities of Capitalism, Humanical Moral Science, Social Morality Or Good State, Humanical Civilisation: A Universal Grid of Humanical Societies and Colossus Complexus: Eternally Learning Humanity.

The world has, apparently, accepted that Capitalism is the High Pinnacle of All Systems and, some still dream that Marxism will rescue humanity from this Killing Mechanism Capitalism, we refuse to subscribe to that. Humanics is the Post-Marxist and Post-Capitalistic World View of What Humanity can be and what it can do and how infinitely better a human condition can be created in a Humanical Society, by eradicating ownership and money and by establishing belongingship in human enterprise, setting all humans at liberty and equality under the rule of law in natural justice with a direct form of democracy, humanics calls it, Humanicsovics, in which, each human soul is her:his own High Representative. In this, Humanics is the Minority Vision and we do not and can not expect millions and billions of people supporting our vision today but We Whole-Heartedly Believe That ONE DAY This Humanity Shall BE ALL HUMANICAL: By When: We Know Not But This: That Being a Monstrous Killing Mechanism Capitalism IS Unsustainable: The World Shall Change One Day and Every Change Begins with an Idea, with a Vision:

There can not be any sustainability until and unless we take the view that sustainability comes as philosophical, political philosophical, political economical, ethical, moral, sociological, educational, jurisprudential, socio-cultural and ecological and humanical spiritual so that we are able to create a sustainable 'architecture' of existence in a clean, green, circular and sustainable political economics, that underpins all forms and expressions of sustainability and when such an 'architecture' exists within the Larin Paraske Maxim or Oath: Do No Harm to Anyone or Anything:

all things and all living forms must have equitable status in the sphere of all existence or all life on earth, with an emphasis on the Universana. Because humanity does not just exist on earth but it does so in the Sunnara, in the Home Bay of the Milky Way Galaxy in the vast expanse of the Universe, our home Universana. Dear Reader, we are on the path of humanics, please, tell the world and world humanity that humanics has arrived on earth from 'the without of human imagination', learning, questioning and thoughts, gained from the eternal walks of this human soul's eternal journey on the eternal path of eternal learning, with its humanical metaphysics, humanical philosophy as natural science, humanical psychology, humanical political philosophy, humanical political economics, humanical jurisprudence, humanical sociology, humanical moral science and humanical arealism. For capitalism has created global warming and climate change and wracked the earth with environmental degradations and pollutions in all spheres, where bio-diversity is getting lost at an alarming rate as the earth keeps on being heated up. Humanity is devastated by capitalism's poverty-paradigm, delivering all its high-cruelties, high-brutalities and high-barbarities. This is why it is paramount that that we speak up and out and try our hardest to inspire faith, hope, determination and resolution among all humanity of this world, women and men, that we shall not just accept this 'sentence of doom', that capitalism's mindless consumerism, infinite greed of infinite profiteering, decadent voguism and venomous voyeurism, orchestrated by the Distorteddia have brought us and, yet, that we can, we should, we ought, we must keep on trying: 'to seek to try: to do: to change: to make better the human condition' and we do so as one humanity, as women and men, working together as one, in unison with the same aim, same goal, same objective: to get all humanity to liberty, equality, fairness and justice in the rule of law in natural justice, with a purpose and meaning to our existence, where we all humanity, with our all-unity and all-diversity, exist as one humanity naturale on one Mother Earth, in one Sunnara, in one Home Bay Milky Way Galaxy in the one Universana with the humanical foundation of faith: humanity is an infinity unfolding itself, in which, we are all-for-one and one-for-all.
