|| Jurisprudence || US Rescinds ICC Sanctions: President Biden Should Support
Global Court of Last Resort ||

|| Sunday: April 04: 2021 || á. US President Mr Joe Biden's cancellation of punitive sanctions, targeting the International Criminal Court:ICC removes a serious obstacle to the Court providing justice to the victims of the world's worst crimes, Human Rights Watch said today. On April 02, 2021, Mr Biden revoked a June 2020 order by previous President Mr Donald Trump, authorising asset freezes and entry bans to thwart the ICC's work.

In announcing the repeal of the executive order, Secretary of State Antony Blinken said, "These decisions reflect our assessment that the measures adopted were inappropriate and ineffective." The State Department, also, lifted existing visa restrictions. "The Trump administration's perversely punitive sanctions against the ICC showed stark contempt for the victims of grave international crimes and the prosecutors, who seek to hold those responsible to account." said Mr Richard Dicker, the International Justice Director at Human Rights Watch. "In removing this unprecedented threat to the global rule of law, President Biden has begun the long process of restoring US credibility on international justice through the ICC."

The Trump administration put the sweeping executive order into effect in September, when it imposed sanctions on the court's prosecutor, Fatou Bensouda and another senior official, Phakiso Mochochoko. It had repeatedly threatened action to thwart ICC investigations in Afghanistan and Palestine. In 2019, the Trump administration had revoked the prosecutor's US visa. Human Rights Watch had urged the Biden administration to rescind Trump's executive order as a matter of priority. The Trump administration's order was a threat to the global rule of law and the court's work in bringing justice to victims.

It, also, created apprehension and uncertainty for non-governmental organisations, consultants and lawyers, who work with the ICC in investigative and adjudicative capacities. Several academics and practitioners, who provided expertise to the Office of the Prosecutor or represented victims before the court challenged the constitutionality of the executive order in two lawsuits in US federal court.

Several US lawmakers spoke out after the order was used to sanction the two ICC officials, as did ICC member countries, the European Union, and non-governmental organisations in the US and globally. Significantly, ICC member countries repeatedly affirmed their collective support for the court, including, during their most recent annual meeting, in December. While repealing the order, though, the Biden administration made clear it continued to oppose the ICC's actions in the Afghanistan and Palestine situations. In response to the ICC prosecutor's March decision to open a Palestine investigation, the US Secretary of State Mr Antony Blinken reiterated US opposition to such an inquiry, contesting the court's jurisdiction over the situation. The prosecutor's investigation provides a long-awaited path to justice for both Palestinian and Israeli victims of serious international crimes, Human Rights Watch said.

ICC member countries should act on the lessons of the executive order's repeal and voice their support for the court. The countries, that created the ICC should stand ready to protect its crucial role against any action aimed at undermining its independence as a court, Human Rights Watch said. With the punitive sanctions no longer in place, the US government should review its future engagement with the ICC. A US State Department spokesperson had previously indicated that the administration might consider resuming co-operation with the court in ‘exceptional cases’. While differences will remain between Washington and the court, the Biden administration should seek regularised co-operation with the ICC. Justice through the ICC can advance important US policy interests, as the February 04 conviction of Dominic Ongwen, a former leader of the brutal Lord’s Resistance Army, demonstrated. The Ongwen case highlighted the very constructive role, that can be played by the US, which provided essential support for his surrender to the court in 2015.

While the US should work toward joining the court’s founding treaty, the Rome Statute, even, as a non-member it can advance ICC cases by providing evidence, co-operating in the arrest of fugitives, calling for and endorsing UN Security Council actions to support the court and engaging in discussions at the Assembly of States Parties, that consists of the ICC’s 123 member countries.

“The ICC has its limitations but, its role as a court of last resort for the worst crimes is needed now more than ever.” Mr Dicker said. “The Biden administration should back the ICC to ensure that victims get a chance for justice and that co-operation should be the rule, not the exception.”

|| Africa || Thousands on the Move After Brutal Attacks in Northern Mozambique: OCHA ||

|| Sunday: April 04: 2021 || á. Thousands of people in Mozambique’s northern province of Cabo Delgado are on the move in search of safety, as the security situation remains volatile, after last week's brutal attacks by armed groups in Palma district, according to the UN Office for Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs:OCHA.

More than 9,100 people, almost, half of them children, arrived in Nangade, Mueda, Montepuez and Pemba districts, OCHA said in a flash update on Friday. About two-thirds of those, arriving are staying with host families, who have generously opened their homes to those fleeing the violence. "Thousands more are reportedly on the move through the forest in search of safety and are expected to arrive at different locations in the days ahead."

According to OCHA, the attacks in Palma, which began on March 24, uprooted many, who had been sheltering there after having fled conflict in other parts of Cabo Delgado. Prior to the violence last week, nearly 670,000, including, about 160,000 women and adolescent girls, as well as, 19,000 pregnant women, were internally displaced in Cabo Delgado, Niassa and Nampula provinces, the vast majority of them living with host families, whose scarce resources are being exhausted.

The uptick in violence in Cabo Delgado, also, severely impacted health services, endangering about 950 displaced pregnant women without access to safe delivery and lifesaving emergency obstetric care services, according to the UN Population Fund:UNFPA. There are, also, deep concerns, that thousands of women may require care in response to sexual and gender-based violence, the agency added.

UN agencies and their partners, in close co-ordination with the Government, have stepped up their support for displaced people, distributing food rations, blankets, mattresses and learning kits, as well as, providing medical and psycho-social support to those in need. Protection agencies are, also, screening new arrivals to identify the most vulnerable and supporting authorities with referrals.

The UN Humanitarian Air Service:UNHAS, operated by the World Food Programme:WFP continues to support the evacuation efforts, airlifting more than 380 people to safety, as of March 31. On April 01, a boat carrying 1,300 arrived in the town of Pemba, about, 280 kilometres or 175 miles south of Palma, where UN agencies and partners were present to offer assistance.

|| Literature || English PEN's Translation Grant Is Now Open For Submissions ||

|| Sunday: April 04: 2021 || α. English PEN's flagship translation grant is now open for submissions. Launched in 2012 with support from Arts Council England, PEN Translates helps UK publishers to meet the costs of translating new works into English, while ensuring that translators are acknowledged and paid properly for their work. The deadline for applications is May 31.

The programme has now supported over 300 books and awarded over £01 million of funding. 12 titles supported through PEN Translates have featured on International Booker Prize longlists in the last five years. PEN Translates is open to works from all languages, and it is not essential for publishers to have acquired the rights at the time of application, as long as they have permission from the publisher of the original.

PEN Translates awards are assessed based on: literary quality, strength of the publishing proposal and contribution to UK biblio-diversity.

Applications from underrepresented are, particularly, welcome, in forms and genres, e.g, children's literature, YA, graphic novels and underrepresented languages and geographies, e.g, indigenous languages, Oceania literatures, Sub-Saharan African languages.

Publishers should note and use the revised application form available on the English PEN website and apply through our new submissions form.

|| England || Thousands of Patients Are Set to Benefit From Five-Minute Breast Cancer Treatment ||

|| Sunday: April 04: 2021 || α. An injection, PHESGO, that would cut the amount of time breast cancer patients spend in hospital from two and a half hours to as little as five minutes is being rolled out across the country by NHS England. Breast cancer patients under-going chemotherapy will be offered this new combined treatment, which is injected and takes as little as five minutes to prepare and administer, compared with two infusions that can take up to two and a half hours.

More than 3,600 new patients each year will benefit from the treatment, as well as, others, who will switch from the treatment they are on to the single injection, following an NHS deal with the manufacturer. The injection will be offered to eligible people with HER2-positive breast cancer, which accounts for 15% of all breast cancers, and can be given alongside chemotherapy or on its own.

The five-minute injection significantly cuts the COVID infection risk for cancer patients by reducing the amount of time spent in hospital and frees up time for clinicians in chemotherapy units. The announcement is the latest in a series of innovations in cancer care during the pandemic, including Covid-secure surgery hubs, that were set up across the country and £160 million invested by NHS England in 'covid-friendly' cancer drugs, that treat patients without having such a big impact on their immune system or offer other benefits, such as, fewer hospital visits.

Since the start of the pandemic, 228,000 people have started NHS treatment for cancer, 95% of whom did so within a month. Hospitals across England have carried out more than two cancer procedures for every patient they treated for coronavirus last year. Care providers were told they could begin offering the treatment in February and the agreement between the health service, NICE and the manufacturer means it comes at no extra cost to the NHS.

NHS National Clinical Director for Cancer, Mr Peter Johnson, said, “The NHS has continued to adopt new treatments rapidly throughout the pandemic, to improve cancer care for patients. This new injection, which can substantially cut treatment time for people with breast cancer, is the latest in a series of changes which have meant the NHS has been able to deliver vital cancer treatment while keeping patients safe from COVID.

Baroness Delyth Morgan, the Chief Executive at Breast Cancer Now, said, “Approval of PhESGO being used on the NHS in England is fantastic news as thousands of women with HER2 positive breast cancer will now benefit from a quicker and kinder treatment method. Reducing the time patients need to spend in hospital, this more efficient treatment method also promises to free up precious time for healthcare professionals when the NHS is already under unprecedented strain due to COVID-19.”

PHESGO is a fixed-dose combination of Pertuzumab with Trastuzumab, that previously would have been given as separate IV infusions. The NHS has prioritised cancer care during the coronavirus pandemic and the latest figures show that hospitals carried out more than two cancer treatments for every patient they treated for COVID-19.

In December alone, more than 25,000 patients were treated for cancer and more than 200,000 people came forward for checks. More than 228,000 people have started treatment for cancer during the pandemic. January saw 171,231 cancer referrals, more than double the number in April, with 22,942 patients beginning treatment, up more than 2,000 on the April COVID peak.

There can not be any sustainability until and unless we take the view that sustainability comes as philosophical, political philosophical, political economical, ethical, moral, sociological, educational, jurisprudential, socio-cultural and ecological and humanical spiritual so that we are able to create a sustainable 'architecture' of existence in a clean, green, circular and sustainable political economics, that underpins all forms and expressions of sustainability and when such an 'architecture' exists within the Larin Paraske Maxim or Oath: Do No Harm to Anyone or Anything: all things and all living forms must have equitable status in the sphere of all existence or all life on earth, with an emphasis on the Universana. Because humanity does not just exist on earth but it does so in the Sunnara, in the Home Bay of the Milky Way Galaxy in the vast expanse of the Universe, our home Universana.

- G: Absolute Right to Guaranteed Social Care
- H: Absolute Right to a Universal Income
- I: Absolute Right to a Job
- J: Absolute Right to Dignified Civic and Human Funeral Paid Through by Universal Income

This Is the Body of Work, by Munayem Mayenin, That Has Brought Into Existence the Philosophy and Vision of Humanics

Dehumanisation of Humanity: Volume One: Published: July: 2007: 978-1-4477-1330-2

Mayenin worked and developed the very critique of capitalism and Marxism while at university in which he had envisioned the world's future in humanics for humanity to reach and achieve liberty and equality for all humanity, which capitalism has continually slaughtered and Marxism failed desperately, even, to understand, let alone, to know or show how to seek and achieve them. Some of these works were published in publications in the early 00s and the volume was published as a book in 2007. There are three other volumes of this planned work, yet to be published.

Humanics The Foundation: Volume One: Published: December 06: 2017: ISBN: 978-0-244-34575-4

This piece of work elaborated the philosophy of humanics and presented the idea of human enterprise and how it works to enable humanity to conduct the human economical endeavours in humanics.

Humanics The Humanicsonomics: Volume Two: Published: June 12: 2018: ISBN: 978-0-244-48334-0

This is the political economics or humanicsonomics of humanics in human enterprise. This volume presents the political economics of humanics and envisioned world's future as two distinct phases: pre-humanical or Kapitalawnomics phase in which capitalism is saved from pseudonomics and brought under the absolute and complete control and power of the rule of law so to make it serve the people at all times and not the rich and through this phase, humanity brings into existence the humanical Building-Block Foundational Human Rights and end capitalism's Poverty Paradigm, that causes all of the high-cruelties, high-brutalities and high-barbarities, that are inflicted on the vast number of humanity on this earth. Further to this, this work advances the system and mechanism of human enterprise and envisioned at the end of the development of Kapitalawnomics human societies will have developed enough to be able and equipped to try and seek to bring into existence humanical societies, that will begin to form a grid of humanical societies into a universal humanical civilisation on earth.

The Humanics Elleesium Declaration 2019: The Humanicsxian Manifesto: Published: April 06: 2019: ISBN: 978-0-244-76474-6

This short piece of work nano-summarised the entire body of Munayem Mayenin's works on humanics. This calls on the working humanity of the world to rise, organise and united under new and humanical political forces, parties and organisations to seek and try to bring about a humanical world movement to lead humanity to equality and liberty.

Humanics The Humanicsovics: Volume Three: To Be Published Later This Year

This volume presents the political philosophy of humanics and the means to deliver that political philosophy by and through humanicsovics, humanical direct form of democracy without party politics whereby each and every individual human being becomes his:her own High Representative and they all run their society's human affairs management together as individuals, working together as scientists and mathematicians without any political parties.

Alphansum Sovereign Necessarius: Published April 14: 2020: ISBN: 978-0-244-58241-8

Although, this large volume is of metaphysical work, it has brought the whole humanical universal view in a harmonious outlook, unifying all expressions, fields, areas and arenas of human existence and in this process this work elvioned the coming into existence the new branches of science, that has already been mentioned.

Laranska The Anatomy of Fear: Novel: Published: January 2009: ISBN: 978-1-4477-1426-2

No Man's Land's Bloom: Play: Published: May 2010: ISBN: 978-1-4477-0903-9

United Colours of Blood: Screenplay: Published: January 2009: ISBN: 978-1-4477-1615-0

Larantia Poetry of Anatophysiophilosophicamonimayareginata: A Magnum of a Planned Volume of 850 Sonnets About All Branches of Medicine: Currently Having Few Hundred Sonnets: First Published: October 14, 2016: ISBN: 978-1-326-28882-2

In his other major bodies of works, that are yet to be published Mayenin has worked on further in elaborating the psychology and social psychology of the zoohumanity, that capitalism and all the dehumanisations it has inflicted on humanity through its enforcement of inequality and the absence of liberty. These as yet unpublished works include: Psychology of Zoohuman, Humanical Jurisprudence, Sociology of Evil, Economics of Squalors: The High-Cruelties High-Brutalities and High-Barbarities of Capitalism, Humanical Moral Science, Social Morality Or Good State, Humanical Civilisation: A Universal Grid of Humanical Societies and Colossus Complexus: Eternally Learning Humanity.

The world has, apparently, accepted that Capitalism is the High Pinnacle of All Systems and, some still dream that Marxism will rescue humanity from this Killing Mechanism Capitalism, we refuse to subscribe to that. Humanics is the Post-Marxist and Post-Capitalistic World View of What Humanity can be and what it can do and how infinitely better a human condition can be created in a Humanical Society, by eradicating ownership and money and by establishing belongingship in human enterprise, setting all humans at liberty and equality under the rule of law in natural justice with a direct form of democracy, humanics calls it, Humanicsovics, in which, each human soul is her:his own High Representative. In this, Humanics is the Minority Vision and we do not and can not expect millions and billions of people supporting our vision today but We Whole-Heartedly Believe That ONE DAY This Humanity Shall BE ALL HUMANICAL: By When: We Know Not But This: That Being a Monstrous Killing Mechanism Capitalism IS Unsustainable: The World Shall Change One Day and Every Change Begins with an Idea, with a Vision:

We invite you to Envision the Vision and Philosophy of Humanics and Support The Humanion, The Humanion Portable Daily, The Humanion Larnaarch and The Foundation to Keep Taking Forward the Vision and Philosophy of Humanics, to Keep on Challenging Capitalism's Poverty Paradigm, for an Infinitely Better Humanity in an Infinitely Better Human Condition for All Humanity Across Mother Earth. Dear Reader, we are on the path of humanics, please, tell the world and world humanity that humanics has arrived on earth from 'the without of human imagination', learning, questioning and thoughts, gained from the eternal walks of this human soul's eternal journey on the eternal path of eternal learning, with its humanical metaphysics, humanical philosophy as natural science, humanical psychology, humanical political philosophy, humanical political economics, humanical jurisprudence, humanical sociology, humanical moral science and humanical arealism. For capitalism has created global warming and climate change and wracked the earth with environmental degradations and pollutions in all spheres, where bio-diversity is getting lost at an alarming rate as the earth keeps on being heated up. Humanity is devastated by capitalism's poverty-paradigm, delivering all its high-cruelties, high-brutalities and high-barbarities. This is why it is paramount that that we speak up and out and try our hardest to inspire faith, hope, determination and resolution among all humanity of this world, women and men, that we shall not just accept this 'sentence of doom', that capitalism's mindless consumerism, infinite greed of infinite profiteering, decadent voguism and venomous voyeurism, orchestrated by the Distorteddia have brought us and, yet, that we can, we should, we ought, we must keep on trying: 'to seek to try: to do: to change: to make better the human condition' and we do so as one humanity, as women and men, working together as one, in unison with the same aim, same goal, same objective: to get all humanity to liberty, equality, fairness and justice in the rule of law in natural justice, with a purpose and meaning to our existence, where we all humanity, with our all-unity and all-diversity, exist as one humanity naturale on one Mother Earth, in one Sunnara, in one Home Bay Milky Way Galaxy in the one Universana with the humanical foundation of faith: humanity is an infinity unfolding itself, in which, we are all-for-one and one-for-all.
