Lit and Light As Butterflies Do

As you like it but how, yet much do you not make ado nor Much do you speak for silence is emerald green, as measure
Is for measure yet treasure do you not that what's only fools
Gold as Othello speaks out Desdemona as Hamlet questions

Why seek not Richard the Third nor L. J. Macbeth for Love's Labours are never lost if you loved true if love splits your soul
As a lightning does the dark heavens in a stormy night and if Ophelia-wonder you seek never, keep a ledger but be love's slate

Use not old coins or words but make your own to say or do
Walk not the travelled paths nor climb easy mountain-tops
What's worth of twelfth night's dreams unless you've dreamt by Will

What would Juliet say what would Romeo do for the lamp is lit
Of their soul that simply won't blow in the market you won't find
Love to buy but live it in your soul as butterflies do lit and light
