Rooted in Imagination and Humanity: Stand Against the Machine: Stand Against Dehumanisation: On Reality in Persons in Families in Communities and in Society

10 The Sonnets to Orpheus: Rainer Maria Rilke

The machine is a threat to all we have won,
if it invades the spirit and fails to obey.
It's ousted handicraft's slower, lovelier way with starker buildings, and harsher cutting of stone.

We never escape it — it never stays in the factory, oily and self-possessed.
It's life itself, and thinks it knows best because it impartially orders, creates and destroys.

But life is still magic for us; at hundreds of places it is still origin. No one can know this field of power and fail to kneel in wonder.

Before the unsayable, language still fades out . . .
And Music, choosing the most vibrating stones, builds in unusable space her deified house.

|| Sunday: September 24: 2023: Munayem Mayenin || á. All so-called civilisations humanity attempted from the dawn of the species, invariably, established themselves as monstrosity by virtue of which all of them disappeared from the earth; some without even any trace. Each one stood against the rule of law, each one stood for utter, comprehensive, absolute and all-engulfing contradictions, antagonisms, incongruities, absurdities and paradoxes and, thus, stood against natural justice and each one challenged the very nature itself and came to become unsustainable and, invariably, collapsed. This current one of dehumanisation began with the fall of humanity into dehumanisation from the point of the invention of ownership both of nature and means of production, means of transactions and the enforcement of enslavement of humanity itself. These very things are anti-nature: anti-nature is that what is constituted and defined by contradictions, antagonisms, incongruities, absurdities and paradoxes. Capitalism now as pseudonomics has reached a state that humanity can now achieve an existence of universal Building-Block Foundational Human Rights, which humanics has brought into being:

A: Absolute Right to Live in Clean, Healthy, Safe and Natural Environment: B: Absolute Right to Breathe Natural, Fresh, Clean and Safe Air: C: Absolute Right to Necessary Nutritional Balanced Food and Drink: D: Absolute Right to Free Medical Care at the Point of Need: E: Absolute Right to an Absolute Home: F: Absolute Right to Free Degree-Level Education and Life Long Learning: G: Absolute Right to Guaranteed Social Care: H: Absolute Right to a Universal Income: I: Absolute Right to a Job: J: Absolute Right to Dignified Civic and Human Funeral Paid Through by Universal Income

Yet, capitalism destroys all such rights and enforces nothing but a burning darkness of 'poverty' of everything! And the world is made a living hell for most of humanity and ever-going hardship, suffering, agony and pain are distributed to the vast multitude of humanity while the profiteers advance their powers, prowess and hold over all and dictate, direct and herd all humanity and lead them towards a definitive annihilation, elimination and obliteration: this is the ultimate evidence of capitalism as pseudonomics being anti-nature: a manifestation of the monstrosities of contradictions, antagonisms, incongruities, absurdities and paradoxes. For what can it answer were a child to ask: why should millions of young children die of hunger and suffer malnutrition and ill health? Why should not all children and young people get universal education and healthcare? Why should people live in hunger and suffer malnutrition when we can eradicate these sufferings? Why should people be left to die on the street? Why should humanity suffer from countless, endless and ever-going and ever-hardening march past of nothing but agony and suffering while these can be eradicated? It has not answer but to offer this: because capitalism as pseudonomics is a construct of contradictions, antagonisms, incongruities, absurdities and paradoxes. This is why it exists against the natural gradient system, which ensures natural justice so that the necessary power or force always goes where it is needed most and then follows the gradient of necessity but capitalism ensures the exact opposite of it: it sends the power to where it is not needed at all. It makes a millionaire richer by every second while it does the opposite to a poor worker: it robs away the poor worker every second so that she:he keeps on getting poorer and more powerless every second. For values can not be created by the rich but by the workers and the rich can only acquire it by robbing it from them and gather them in heaps so that their pseudonomic siphoning devices open up blackholes and they keep on siphoning away the worker-created values to their heaps, that keep on getting larger and larger. And the larger these heaps get the smaller the workers' portions keep on becoming. So that soon there arises this state of utter monstrosity that 01% of the rich own 99% of the wealth and value while 99% of the rest of humanity can not keep on holding onto their tiny little 01% because the 99% keep on drawing on and taking all towards the grand robbery heap of the rich!

Ownership is anti-nature for no one can own the Universe for it is too vast, one can not own something, that one does not even know the borders of. How can one ascertain a price for something, that one can not 'survey' into a quantifiable body! Owning is anti-nature whether it is of nature or means of production. Means of transactions is anti-nature for nothing in nature 'pays' for anything or charges anything for what it gives out: the sky does not pay the earth nor does the bees pay to the flowers nor do they charge humans to take their honey nor do the oceans charge us for feeding us and keeping us alive nor do rivers or lakes charge us for their waters nor do the ecology of the water, earth, air, sky nor the various spheres of the earth charge us for sustaining life nor does the sun nor the moon nor any other stars charge us for what infinity of gifts they offer for life.

It, ownership, therefore, is anti-nature. And, thus, anti-rationality and reason. And what arises out of it is anti-nature, too: making a profit to increase ownership so to increase the powers, one holds over the others, whom one has already enslaved. The enslaved, by the sheer and violent force, cruelty, barbarity, viciousness and brutality, were made to work and produce but their produce were sold off for profit and have been pocketed by the owners, who then went on increasing their owning and powers, with which they enforced their 'order'.

The very phrase order does not arise in nature because nature is the rule of law and it works and exists in natural justice whose natural expression is peace, equilibrium or homeostasis. Once it is broken the opposite of peace ensues so that, because peace is broken, it has to be 'ordered' so to 'keep peace' but in nature no one keeps peace because nature itself is nothing but an infinity of variables constructing peace of the rule of law, by the rule of law, by which it comes to exist and does exist and perish by. Here, now we are: capitalism has become pseudonomics, opening all the pathways for 24-7 to rob off the created values by the human workforce, that are being done by the distortedddia conglomerate and with it the distortedddia came about with its monstrosities of dehumanisation, machination, mechanisation, distortion, fragmentation, disempowerment, disenfranchisement, disconnection, destruction of the person, family, community, agencies and organisations and society, herding, manipulation, fascisomisation and fraudficial malintelligence, what they have been pumping money to promote as 'artificial intelligence' as capitalism enforces universal all-engulfing poverty to both the poverty-waged workers and destitution-bound non-working humanity while humanity itself has been transformed into zoohumanity by the economics of squalors, sociology of squalors, all enforcing mandatory sociology of evil and in these realities are created endless profiteering and ever-going consuming, which are now the 'nature' of things.

Human intelligence is left to the 'mercy' of all the high-cruelties, high-brutalities and high-barbarities, which are enforced by everything of capitalism while these pseudonomical 'invisible siphoning devices' as are the distorteddia conglomerate, are placed everywhere like invisible supermassive blackholes to keep on robbing off the working humanity-created worth and values while the high-cruelty, high-brutality and high-barbarity are enforced over the poverty-waged working humanity, over the non-working humanity, who are on social security where it exists and they are given the live-in-life-sentence of suffering, agony, pain and hardship in sheer and absolute poverty and where the social security does not exist the most vulnerable are given a mandatory destitution warrant to just keep on suffer in agony till they fall apart and die away.

And, yet, these states and governments and all the apparatus of the public affairs management systems, political philosophy, political economics, sociology, social psychology and jurisprudence have become enslaved by the distorteddia conglomerate and using this inaptitude, incompetence and dereliction of duty by these states and governments and the entire range of these things, they, these distorteddia bodies, have miss-invested and misdirected and abused massive amount of human, financial and natural resources in developing what they are calling artificial intelligence so to do nothing but advance and increase their profiteering and advance nothing but monstrosities of dehumanisation, machination, mechanisation, distortion, fragmentation, disempowerment, disenfranchisement, disconnection, destruction of the person, family, community, agencies and organisations and society, herding, manipulation, fascisomisation and this fraudficial malintelligence as capitalism as pseudonomics keeps on enforcing universal all-engulfing poverty.

And yet, they are seeking to get everyone in their band wagon! That this fraudficial intelligence is going to help humanity! The workers are going to be helped by this fraud! Why are these companies promoting this? To benefit workers? When the enforced automation and robots and the fraudficial entrapment devices and vehicles are going to be enforced to do work, that humanity does, what would happen to that humanity, that now are no longer necessary? Are they not going to be vegetables, good for nothing? And what is this humanity, as good for nothing, going to do to exist? Who are going to feed them? Who are going to bear the cost of maintaining these super-useless vegetable humanity, that have lost the very pathway of being and doing humanity!

They can not and do not need to work because automatons are doing the work? Who are speaking about this? It does not appear to attract any attention in the public domain. And these things have gotten into every sphere and the band wagon is getting louder and a whole host of spineless universities and agencies are banging on about this and it has gotten into education and devastating the very lives and beings of the young! They are speaking of pharmacy and other vital services being run by fraudficial malintelligence and robots and medicine being practised by these and media and publishing outlets are using these devices so that no one now knows who or what is presenting these outlets. Government agencies, businesses and other organisations are running much of their service vehicles with this fraudficial malintelligence so that the people have not way to dealing with the issues they face because they seem to keep hitting their heads on a wall. Local authorities are seeking to hide themselves from the public, who do not get to speak to any human being any longer. Everything has begun to be utterly dehumanised. There are, even, agencies speaking of using robots to 'support' the care of the elderly! The vital question no one is raising is this: if, fraudficial malintelligence and the robotic devices and gadgets are going to do the work of humanity, then, what is this humanity, that would not have nothing to do, going to do? And, why is it that they are seeking to replace humanity with their gadgets? Is it not to, simply, increase profits? And yet, there are people, who are speaking with animated language that these horror things are going to be beneficial to workers! Amazon is replacing workers with robots: what is it going to do to the workers, that were doing these tasks, that now the robots are doing? Keep them in its employment and pay them while they do nothing! And, vitally, were the humanity, that have now become unemployed and unemployable, to live without any income, what would that mean for the economy where all these products and services are being produced for consumption while the consumers have no money to consume? Can these states and governments sustain themselves by providing social security to the vast multitude of now defunct human beings, who have nothing to do? And, if, they have nothing to do: what are going to do to spend their time: 24-07! What would that do to society and to humanity!

It is not artificial intelligence but fraudficial malintelligence to give the powerful distorteddia and all pseudonomical agencies powers over the populace to advance nothing but profiteering and all this is leading humanity towards extinction because of the destructions of everything nature has created, including the very humanity and the web and ecology of life and existence. It is time to make a stand.

Throughout the history of human development, we have seen this: that progressive forces always have been and could not but have been the minority and that minority always resist the regressive forces. Often, we have seen that minority progressive forces got annihilated by the regressive forces, recall what happened to Socrates, to Jesus Christ, to Spartacus, to the White Rose, to Martin Luther King Junior, to Steve Beco, there are countless examples, many failed revolutions, such as, the Paris Commune. Yet, these instances of annihilation were the first revolutions to bring forward the lasting resistance, that comes back stronger and gets stronger with time. It, must, always be a minority, the progressive force, that begins the resistance and they can not but resist and fight. This fight, today, before world's humanity, is the fight of human existence because capitalism as pseudonomics and all these distorteddia and pseudonomical apparatus and the fraudficial malintelligence and all the devastations, destructions, pollutions, global warming and climate change and poverty are nothing but monstrosities of dehumanisation, machination, mechanisation, distortion, fragmentation, disempowerment, disenfranchisement, disconnection, destruction of the person, family, community, agencies and organisations and society, herding, manipulation, fascisomisation and this fraudficial malintelligence, as capitalism as pseudonomics, keeps on enforcing universal all-engulfing poverty.

Hamlet put forward "To be or not to be is the question"; however, it is no longer a question of whether to be or not to be because that choice had been eradicated away from humanity but whether to fight the regressive forces, that bring about annihilation, obliteration and extinction for humanity because so long these destructive forces lead they can only destroy, obliterate and annihilate. It is time, therefore, for humanity to rise to resist the monstrosities of these regressive forces of capitalism as pseudonomics, its pseudonomical apparatus of robbery, the distorteddia conglomerate, including its fraudficial intelligence, for ought not humanity strive to advance human intelligence, human development, advancement and progression and advance the human condition? If, so, why would humanity let itself be stripped off its very own humanity by machines and machinations and become 'enslaved' unto the monstrous feet of the machines?

It is time to stand and fight for existence: machines do not and can not understand existence, life and the web and ecology of life and profiteers know no other deity but their terminal enslavement to the infinite greed for more regardless of the terrible price the whole humanity are forced to pay for that. And world humanity have no other path left to them but to stand up and fight against these monstrosities of capitalism as pseudonomics for their existence as humanity naturale.

Elleesium Group of Publications have made a stand. We stand on humanics: All-For-One-One-For-All.
