|| The World || The World Must Rise to Finance COVAX As the Highest Moral Duty: Ghana Receives the First Historic Shipment of COVID-19 Vaccinations COVAX Facility ||

|| Wednesday: February 24: 2021 || Ⴖ. Six hundred thousand doses of life-saving COVID-19 vaccine from the UN-partnered COVAX initiative have arrived in Ghana: a historic first for the international partnership to provide equitable vaccinations for all. Confirming the news on Wednesday, the World Health Organisation:WHO said that further supplies of the AstraZeneca:Oxford vaccine will reach Côte d'Ivoire later this week. The development comes as WHO has reported a drop in COVID-19 deaths for the third consecutive week. Some 66,000 deaths were reported last week, according to the UN agency's latest update on the disease.

WHO said that deaths have fallen in all regions except the Western Pacific, which recorded a six per cent increase. New infections, also, decreased by 11% over the same period in four out of six regions. However, South-East Asia and the Eastern Mediterranean reported small increases of two per cent and seven per cent respectively. Globally, there have been nearly 111 million cases of COVID-19 since the start of the pandemic and more than 02.4 million deaths. The United States, Brazil, France, Russia and India continue to report the highest number of cases.

These are the first coronavirus shots from the COVAX scheme to be distributed outside India, where the vaccine is being produced under licence. They were shipped from Mumbai to the Ghanaian capital, Accra, by the UN Children's Fund:UNICEF as part of the first wave of vaccines headed to several countries with low and middle income. UNICEF Executive Director Ms Henrietta Fore described their arrival as 'historic moment for which we have been planning and working so hard', as the world ramps up the largest immunisation campaign in history.

"With the first shipment of doses, we can make good on the promise of the COVAX Facility to ensure people from less wealthy countries are not left behind in the race for life-saving vaccines." she said. Further supplies will be shipped to other nations as the global rollout gathers pace, when readiness criteria have been met and the doses produced.

Dr Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, WHO Director General, welcomed the development, along with COVAX partners Gavi, the Vaccine Alliance and the Coalition for Epidemic Preparedness Innovations:CEPI. But he insisted that there was still a lot of work to do to secure support for WHO's goal of giving the vaccine to all health workers and older people in the first 100 days of the year.

"We will not end the pandemic anywhere unless we end it everywhere." he said in a joint statement. "Today is a major first step towards realising our shared vision of vaccine equity but, it's just the beginning. We still have a lot of work to do with governments and manufacturers to ensure that vaccination of health workers and older people is underway in all countries within the first 100 days of this year."

Echoing the urgent need for universal vaccine distribution, Dr Richard Hatchett, the Chief Executive Officer at CEPI, noted that there were now multiple safe and effective vaccines against COVID-19, developed in record time. But the increased spread of COVID-19 variants had ushered in a new and less predictable phase of the pandemic. "It is crucial that the vaccines we have developed are shared globally, as a matter of the greatest urgency, to reduce the prevalence of disease, slow down viral mutation, and bring the pandemic to an end.” Dr Hatchett said.

In an appeal for greater support for the initiative, which Dr Seth Berkley, the Head of fellow COVAX partner GAVI said that the delivery of vaccines to Ghana was a proud moment but, it had to be repeated to all participating economies in coming weeks, to ensure that those most at risk are protected, wherever they live.

“Governments and businesses needed to recommit to COVAX, he said, and help us defeat this virus as quickly as possible.” In order for new coronavirus doses to be delivered to COVAX participants, the criteria, which need to be fulfilled, include confirmation of national regulatory authorisations for the vaccine in question, national vaccination plans and export and import licences.

Ms Ursula von der Leyen, the President of the European Commission, said, “I am delighted that today we have the first delivery of COVAX Vaccines in Accra, Ghana. This is the moment when the long days and nights of hard work finally show with tangible results on the ground. I want to pay tribute to the tireless efforts of our partners, Gavi, WHO and UNICEF. Team Europe will continue to stand by the people of Africa”.

Ms Jacinda Arden, the Prime Minister of New Zealand, said, “Working towards broad global coverage of Covid-19 vaccines is both the right thing to do and the path to ending the pandemic. New Zealand acknowledges the remarkable work of GAVI, CEPI, the WHO and the COVAX Facility to get to this point”.

The President of Spain Mr Pedro Sánchez, said, “Spain has been from the beginning at the core of the ACT Accelerator and other international initiatives to fight the virus, because only by stepping up can we be successful. No one will be safe until everyone is safe.”

Senator Ms Marise Payne, the Minister for Foreign Affairs and Minister for Women, Australia, said, “In this pandemic we know no-one is safe until we all are, and to achieve that everyone must have access to safe and effective COVID 19 vaccines. With the first doses now distributed, Australia is proud to support the COVAX Advance Market Commitment as it delivers access to vaccines that will protect the world’s most vulnerable.”

Ms Karina Gould, the Minister of International Development, Government of Canada and Gavi COVAX AMC Co-chair, said, “Canada has supported the COVAX Facility from the start. It will bring countries together, regardless of their income levels, to speed up the development, manufacture and distribution of COVID-19 vaccines. Today, we celebrate as COVAX kick starts its delivery of the first vaccines to Ghana. This brings us one step closer to achieving coverage for all high-risk populations, including health care workers, around the world. This is truly a milestone for us all.”

Mr Keiichi ONO, the Ambassador of Japan for Global Issues, said, “We welcome the commencement of the delivery of vaccines through the COVAX Facility as an important first step.

Since the launch of the COVAX Facility last June, Japan has been contributing to the designing of unprecedented mechanism and the funding to the AMC. Japan is committed to supporting to ensure equitable access to safe, effective and quality-assured vaccines.”

The Foreign Secretary of United Kingdom, Mr Dominic Raab, said: “Today’s rollout of vaccines to the world’s most vulnerable countries is a huge step forward in ending this pandemic. As one of the biggest donors to COVAX the UK is ensuring that more than one billion vaccine doses will be sent to 92 countries so that no one is left behind in this global fight. We will only save lives and reduce the risk of future infections if we prevent the virus spreading in the world’s developing countries.”

Dr John Nkengasong, the Director, Africa Centres for Disease Control and Prevention, said: "These first deliveries of COVID-19 vaccines through COVAX are a critical moment in Africa's fight against the virus. Thanks to this global collaboration, additional members of key groups such as health workers and other vulnerable groups will have access to COVID-19 vaccines in the weeks to come. This is an important step towards our continental goal of immunising at least 60% of Africa's population with safe and efficacious vaccines against COVID-19, to ease the strain on our health systems and economies and continue our work towards our continental development agenda."

|| Asia || UN Security Council: Impose Arms Embargo on Myanmar ||

|| Wednesday: February 24: 2021 || ႁ. The United Nations Security Council should urgently impose a global arms embargo on Myanmar in response to the military coup and to deter the junta from committing further abuses, 137 non-governmental groups from 31 countries said today in an open letter to the Council members. Governments, that permit arms transfers to Myanmar, including, China, India, Israel, North Korea, the Philippines, Russia and Ukraine, should immediately stop the supply of any weapons, munitions and related equipment.

Since February 01, 2021 coup, the Myanmar military has detained civilian leaders, nullified the November 2020 election results and installed a junta, the State Administration Council, under a manufactured state of emergency. In the ensuing weeks, Myanmar security forces have used excessive and, at times, lethal force against demonstrators; arbitrarily detained activists, students and civil servants and imposed rolling internet shutdowns, that put lives at risk.

“Given the mass atrocities against the Rohingya, decades of war crimes and the overthrow of the elected government, the least the UN Security Council can do is impose a global arms embargo on Myanmar.” said Mr Kenneth Roth, the Executive Director of Human Rights Watch. “Supplying any equipment to the military enables further abuses and bolsters the junta’s ability to repress Myanmar’s people.”

The groups’ call reinforces UN Secretary-General Mr António Guterres’ vow to ‘do everything we can to mobilise all the key actors and international community to put enough pressure on Myanmar to make sure that this coup fails’. The UN special rapporteur on Myanmar has called for a global arms embargo, while he and the Deputy High Commissioner for Human Rights have voiced support for targeted UN sanctions.

The Security Council members should draft a resolution that bars the direct and indirect supply, sale or transfer to the junta of all weapons, munitions and other military-related equipment, including, dual-use goods, such as, vehicles and communications and surveillance equipment, as well as, barring the provision of training, intelligence and other military assistance, the groups said. This should be accompanied by a robust monitoring and enforcement mechanism, including, close scrutiny of sales to third parties, that may be likely to resell such items to Myanmar.

Such sales violate international humanitarian and human rights law, which prohibit the transfer of weapons to a state where there is a clear risk of their being used to commit or facilitate serious violations. The Security Council should, also, impose targeted sanctions, global travel bans and asset freezes on the leadership of the junta and military-owned conglomerates.

Millions of people have taken part in anti-coup protests across the country, calling for the realisation of their right to democratically elect their leaders. On February 16, protesters outside UN offices in Yangon called for increased international support. “We are happy the UN issues statements of condemnation but, we understand they are powerful and can do more.” Mr Thurein, a 21-year-old student, told Frontier Myanmar.

The junta has deployed security forces, including, the notoriously abusive Light Infantry Divisions, to crack down on demonstrators with teargas, water cannons, rubber bullets and live ammunition, killing, at least, three people. Such violence perpetuates the security forces’ long-standing history of abuses against peaceful critics, as well as, against the Rohingya and other ethnic minority groups. The commander-in-chief, General Min Aung Hlaing and several junta officials are directly implicated in crimes against humanity and war crimes in Rakhine, Kachin, Shan and Chin States.

Until the Security Council acts, individual UN member states should adopt measures at the national and regional levels to block sales and other transfers of weapons and materials to Myanmar, with the goal of extending an arms embargo to as close to a global scale as possible. Countries with existing arms embargoes on Myanmar, including, the United States, Canada, Australia, United Kingdom and European Union member countries, should urge governments around the world to institute bilateral embargoes in the interest of building a broad coalition to oppose the flow of weapons to Myanmar. Governments should, also, strengthen monitoring and enforcement processes for existing embargoes, while ensuring the Myanmar military is barred from procuring dual-use goods and technologies.

For decades, the Security Council has failed to take adequate steps to respond to widespread violations of international human rights and humanitarian law in Myanmar. China and Russia have repeatedly vetoed or threatened to veto resolutions, blocking collective action. Despite this disunity, the Council members put out a collective statement in early February, calling for the release of all those arbitrarily detained and the protection of the country's democratic institutions. Members should build on that new-found consensus by urging China and Russia to support an arms embargo resolution, that would ground a global effort to shield the people of Myanmar from a return to autocratic rule, the groups said.

"Cutting off the military's access to arms, hardware, technology and training would tell Myanmar's junta and those, who profit off it, that there are real consequences for their crimes." Mr Roth said. "It would, also, signal to the millions of people, marching in the streets, risking everything for democracy and freedom, that they are not alone in this struggle."

- H: Absolute Right to a Universal Income
- I: Absolute Right to a Job
- J: Absolute Right to Dignified Civic and Human Funeral Paid Through by Universal Income

This Is the Body of Work, by Munayem Mayenin, That Has Brought Into Existence the Philosophy and Vision of Humanics

Dehumanisation of Humanity: Volume One: Published: July: 2007: 978-1-4477-1330-2

Mayenin worked and developed the very critique of capitalism and Marxism while at university in which he had envisioned the world's future in humanics for humanity to reach and achieve liberty and equality for all humanity, which capitalism has continually slaughtered and Marxism failed desperately, even, to understand, let alone, to know or show how to seek and achieve them. Some of these works were published in publications in the early 00s and the volume was published as a book in 2007. There are three other volumes of this planned work, yet to be published.

Humanics The Foundation: Volume One: Published: December 06: 2017: ISBN: 978-0-244-34575-4

This piece of work elaborated the philosophy of humanics and presented the idea of human enterprise and how it works to enable humanity to conduct the human economical endeavours in humanics.

Humanics The Humanicsonomics: Volume Two: Published: June 12: 2018: ISBN: 978-0-244-48334-0

This is the political economics or humanicsonomics of humanics in human enterprise. This volume presents the political economics of humanics and elvisioned world's future as two distinct phases: pre-humanical or Kapitalawnomics phase in which capitalism is saved from pseudonomics and brought under the absolute and complete control and power of the rule of law so to make it serve the people at all times and not the rich and through this phase, humanity brings into existence the humanical Building-Block Foundational Human Rights and end capitalism's Poverty Paradigm, that causes all of the high-cruelties, high-brutalities and high-barbarities, that are inflicted on the vast number of humanity on this earth. Further to this, this work advances the system and mechanism of human enterprise and elvisioned at the end of the development of Kapitalawnomics human societies will have developed enough to be able and equipped to try and seek to bring into existence humanical societies, that will begin to form a grid of humanical societies into a universal humanical civilisation on earth.

The Humanics Elleesium Declaration 2019: The Humanicsxian Manifesto: Published: April 06: 2019: ISBN: 978-0-244-76474-6

This short piece of work nano-summarised the entire body of Munayem Mayenin's works on humanics. This calls on the working humanity of the world to rise, organise and united under new and humanical political forces, parties and organisations to seek and try to bring about a humanical world movement to lead humanity to equality and liberty.

Humanics The Humanicsovics: Volume Three: To Be Published Later This Year

This volume presents the political philosophy of humanics and the means to deliver that political philosophy by and through humanicsovics, humanical direct form of democracy without party politics whereby each and every individual human being becomes his:her own High Representative and they all run their society's human affairs management together as individuals, working together as scientists and mathematicians without any political parties.

Alphansum Sovereign Necessarius: Published April 14: 2020: ISBN: 978-0-244-58241-8

Although, this large volume is of metaphysical work, it has brought the whole humanical universal view in a harmonious outlook, unifying all expressions, fields, areas and arenas of human existence and in this process this work envisioned the coming into existence the new branches of science, that has already been mentioned.

Laranska The Anatomy of Fear: Novel: Published: January 2009: ISBN: 978-1-4477-1426-2

No Man's Land's Bloom: Play: Published: May 2010: ISBN: 978-1-4477-0903-9

United Colours of Blood: Screenplay: Published: January 2009: ISBN: 978-1-4477-1615-0

Larantia Poetry of Anatophysiosophicamonimayareginata: A Magnum of a Planned Volume of 850 Sonnets About All Branches of Medicine: Currently Having Few Hundred Sonnets: First Published: October 14, 2016: ISBN: 978-1-326-28882-2

In his other major bodies of works, that are yet to be published Mayenin has worked on further in elaborating the psychology and social psychology of the zoohumanity, that capitalism and all the dehumanisations it has inflicted on humanity through its enforcement of inequality and the absence of liberty. These as yet unpublished works include: Psychology of Zoohuman, Humanical Jurisprudence, Sociology of Evil, Economics of Squalors: The High-Cruelties High-Brutalities and High-Barbarities of Capitalism, Humanical Moral Science, Social Morality Or Good State, Humanical Civilisation: A Universal Grid of Humanical Societies and Colossus Complexus: Eternally Learning Humanity.

The world has, apparently, accepted that Capitalism is the High Pinnacle of All Systems and, some still dream that Marxism will rescue humanity from this Killing Mechanism Capitalism, we refuse to subscribe to that. Humanics is the Post-Marxist and Post-Capitalistic World View of What Humanity can be and what it can do and how infinitely better a human condition can be created in a Humanical Society, by eradicating ownership and money and by establishing belongingship in human enterprise, setting all humans at liberty and equality under the rule of law in natural justice with a direct form of democracy, humanics calls it, Humanicsovics, in which, each human soul is her:his own High Representative. In this, Humanics is the Minority Vision and we do not and can not expect millions and billions of people supporting our vision today but We Whole-Heartedly Believe That ONE DAY This Humanity Shall BE ALL HUMANICAL: By When: We Know Not But This: That Being a Monstrous Killing Mechanism Capitalism IS Unsustainable: The World Shall Change One Day and Every Change Begins with an Idea, with a Vision:

There can not be any sustainability until and unless we take the view that sustainability comes as philosophical, political philosophical, political economical, ethical, moral, sociological, educational, jurisprudential, socio-cultural and ecological and humanical spiritual so that we are able to create a sustainable 'architecture' of existence in a clean, green, circular and sustainable political economics, that underpins all forms and expressions of sustainability and when such an 'architecture' exists within the Larin Paraske Maxim or Oath: Do No Harm to Anyone or Anything: all things and all living forms must have equitable status in the sphere of all existence or all life on earth, with an emphasis on the Universana. Because humanity does not just exist on earth but it does so in the Sunnara, in the Home Bay of the Milky Way Galaxy in the vast expanse of the Universe, our home Universana. Dear Reader, we are on the path of humanics, please, tell the world and world humanity that humanics has arrived on earth from 'the without of human imagination', learning, questioning and thoughts, gained from the eternal walks of this human soul's eternal journey on the eternal path of eternal learning, with its humanical metaphysics, humanical philosophy as natural science, humanical psychology, humanical political philosophy, humanical political economics, humanical jurisprudence, humanical sociology, humanical moral science and humanical arealism. For capitalism has created global warming and climate change and wracked the earth with environmental degradations and pollutions in all spheres, where bio-diversity is getting lost at an alarming rate as the earth keeps on being heated up. Humanity is devastated by capitalism's poverty-paradigm, delivering all its high-cruelties, high-brutalities and high-barbarities. This is why it is paramount that that we speak up and out and try our hardest to inspire faith, hope, determination and resolution among all humanity of this world, women and men, that we shall not just accept this 'sentence of doom', that capitalism's mindless consumerism, infinite greed of infinite profiteering, decadent voguism and venomous voyeurism, orchestrated by the Distorteddia have brought us and, yet, that we can, we should, we ought, we must keep on trying: 'to seek to try: to do: to change: to make better the human condition' and we do so as one humanity, as women and men, working together as one, in unison with the same aim, same goal, same objective: to get all humanity to liberty, equality, fairness and justice in the rule of law in natural justice, with a purpose and meaning to our existence, where we all humanity, with our all-unity and all-diversity, exist as one humanity naturale on one Mother Earth, in one Sunnara, in one Home Bay Milky Way Galaxy in the one Universana with the humanical foundation of faith: humanity is an infinity unfolding itself, in which, we are all-for-one and one-for-all.
