|| Wednesday: January 20: 2021 || α. "This is America's day. This is democracy's day. A day of history and hope. Of renewal and resolve. Through a crucible for the ages America has been tested anew and America has risen to the challenge. Today, we celebrate the triumph not of a candidate, but of a cause, the cause of democracy. The will of the people has been heard and the will of the people has been heeded. We have learned again that democracy is precious. Democracy is fragile. And at this hour, my friends, democracy has prevailed. So now, on this hallowed ground where just days ago violence sought to shake this Capitol's very foundation, we come together as one nation, under God, indivisible, to carry out the peaceful transfer of power as we have for more than two centuries." Mr Joseph R. Biden, Jr, the 46th President of the United States of America, said at his Inaugural Address to the nation at noon today, Wednesday, January 21.

Thanking the dignitaries present at the Inaugural Ceremony Mr Biden said, "We look ahead in our uniquely American way – restless, bold, optimistic – and set our sights on the nation we know we can be and we must be. I thank my predecessors of both parties for their presence here. I thank them from the bottom of my heart. You know the resilience of our Constitution and the strength of our nation. As does President Carter, who I spoke to last night but who cannot be with us today, but whom we salute for his lifetime of service. I have just taken the sacred oath each of these patriots took – an oath first sworn by George Washington. But the American story depends not on any one of us, not on some of us, but on all of us. On "We the People" who seek a more perfect Union."

"This is a great nation and we are a good people. Over the centuries through storm and strife, in peace and in war, we have come so far. But we still have far to go. We will press forward with speed and urgency, for we have much to do in this winter of peril and possibility. Much to repair. Much to restore. Much to heal. Much to build. And much to gain. Few periods in our nation's history have been more challenging or difficult than the one we're in now. A once-in-a-century virus silently stalks the country. It's taken as many lives in one year as America lost in all of World War II."

The President said, "Millions of jobs have been lost. Hundreds of thousands of businesses closed. A cry for racial justice some 400 years in the making moves us. The dream of justice for all will be deferred no longer. A cry for survival comes from the planet itself. A cry that can't be any more desperate or any more clear. And now, a rise in political extremism, white supremacy, domestic terrorism that we must confront and we will defeat. To overcome these challenges – to restore the soul and to secure the future of America – requires more than words. It requires that most elusive of things in a democracy: Unity. Unity."

"In another January in Washington, on New Year's Day 1863, Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation. When he put pen to paper, the President said, "If my name ever goes down into history it will be for this act and my whole soul is in it." My whole soul is in it. Today, on this January day, my whole soul is in this: Bringing America together. Uniting our people. And uniting our nation. I ask every American to join me in this cause. Uniting to fight the common foes we face: Anger, resentment, hatred. Extremism, lawlessness, violence. Disease, joblessness, hopelessness. With unity we can do great things. Important things. We can right wrongs. We can put people to work in good jobs."

“We can teach our children in safe schools. We can overcome this deadly virus. We can reward work, rebuild the middle class, and make health care secure for all. We can deliver racial justice. We can make America, once again, the leading force for good in the world. I know speaking of unity can sound to some like a foolish fantasy. I know the forces that divide us are deep and they are real. But I also know they are not new. Our history has been a constant struggle between the American ideal that we are all created equal and the harsh, ugly reality that racism, nativism, fear, and demonisation have long torn us apart.”

“The battle is perennial. Victory is never assured. Through the Civil War, the Great Depression, World War, 9/11, through struggle, sacrifice, and setbacks, our “better angels” have always prevailed. In each of these moments, enough of us came together to carry all of us forward. And, we can do so now. History, faith, and reason show the way, the way of unity. We can see each other not as adversaries but as neighbours. We can treat each other with dignity and respect. We can join forces, stop the shouting, and lower the temperature. For without unity, there is no peace, only bitterness and fury. No progress, only exhausting outrage. No nation, only a state of chaos.”

“This is our historic moment of crisis and challenge, and unity is the path forward. And, we must meet this moment as the United States of America. If we do that, I guarantee you, we will not fail. We have never, ever, ever failed in America when we have acted together. And so today, at this time and in this place, let us start afresh. All of us. Let us listen to one another. Hear one another. See one another. Show respect to one another. Politics need not be a raging fire destroying everything in its path. Every disagreement doesn’t have to be a cause for total war. And, we must reject a culture in which facts themselves are manipulated and even manufactured.”

“My fellow Americans, we have to be different than this. America has to be better than this. And, I believe America is better than this. Just look around. Here we stand, in the shadow of a Capitol dome that was completed amid the Civil War, when the Union itself hung in the balance. Yet we endured and we prevailed. Here we stand looking out to the great Mall where Dr. King spoke of his dream. Here we stand, where 108 years ago at another inaugural, thousands of protestors tried to block brave women from marching for the right to vote. Today, we mark the swearing-in of the first woman in American history elected to national office – Vice President Kamala Harris. Don’t tell me things can’t change.”

“Here we stand across the Potomac from Arlington National Cemetery, where heroes who gave the last full measure of devotion rest in eternal peace. And here we stand, just days after a riotous mob thought they could use violence to silence the will of the people, to stop the work of our democracy, and to drive us from this sacred ground. That did not happen. It will never happen. Not today. Not tomorrow. Not ever.”

“To all those who supported our campaign I am humbled by the faith you have placed in us. To all those who did not support us, let me say this: Hear me out as we move forward. Take a measure of me and my heart. And if you still disagree, so be it. That’s democracy. That’s America. The right to dissent peaceably, within the guardrails of our Republic, is perhaps our nation's greatest strength. Yet hear me clearly: Disagreement must not lead to disunion. And I pledge this to you: I will be a President for all Americans. I will fight as hard for those who did not support me as for those who did. Many centuries ago, Saint Augustine, a saint of my church, wrote that a people was a multitude defined by the common objects of their love.

"What are the common objects we love that define us as Americans? I think I know. Opportunity. Security. Liberty. Dignity. Respect. Honour. And, yes, the truth. Recent weeks and months have taught us a painful lesson. There is truth and there are lies. Lies told for power and for profit. And each of us has a duty and responsibility, as citizens, as Americans, and especially as leaders – leaders who have pledged to honour our Constitution and protect our nation – to defend the truth and to defeat the lies. I understand that many Americans view the future with some fear and trepidation. I understand they worry about their jobs, about taking care of their families, about what comes next."

"I get it. But the answer is not to turn inward, to retreat into competing factions, distrusting those who don't look like you do, or worship the way you do, or don't get their news from the same sources you do. We must end this uncivil war that pits red against blue, rural versus urban, conservative versus liberal. We can do this if we open our souls instead of hardening our hearts. If we show a little tolerance and humility. If we're willing to stand in the other person's shoes just for a moment. Because here is the thing about life: There is no accounting for what fate will deal you. There are some days when we need a hand. There are other days when we're called on to lend one. That is how we must be with one another.

And, if we are this way, our country will be stronger, more prosperous, more ready for the future. My fellow Americans, in the work ahead of us, we will need each other. We will need all our strength to persevere through this dark winter. We are entering what may well be the toughest and deadliest period of the virus. We must set aside the politics and finally face this pandemic as one nation. I promise you this: as the Bible says weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning. We will get through this, together."

"The world is watching today. So here is my message to those beyond our borders: America has been tested and we have come out stronger for it. We will repair our alliances and engage with the world once again. Not to meet yesterday's challenges, but today's and tomorrow's. We will lead not merely by the example of our power but by the power of our example. We will be a strong and trusted partner for peace, progress, and security. We have been through so much in this nation. And, in my first act as President, I would like to ask you to join me in a moment of silent prayer to remember all those we lost this past year to the pandemic.

To those 400,000 fellow Americans – mothers and fathers, husbands and wives, sons and daughters, friends, neighbours, and co-workers. We will honour them by becoming the people and nation we know we can and should be. Let us say a silent prayer for those who lost their lives, for those they left behind, and for our country. Amen. This is a time of testing. We face an attack on democracy and on truth. A raging virus. Growing inequity. The sting of systemic racism. A climate in crisis. America's role in the world. Any one of these would be enough to challenge us in profound ways. But the fact is we face them all at once, presenting this nation with the gravest of responsibilities."

"Now we must step up. All of us. It is a time for boldness, for there is so much to do. And, this is certain. We will be judged, you and I, for how we resolve the cascading crises of our era. Will we rise to the occasion? Will we master this rare and difficult hour? Will we meet our obligations and pass along a new and better world for our children? I believe we must and I believe we will. And when we do, we will write the next chapter in the American story. It's a story that might sound something like a song that means a lot to me. It's called "American Anthem" and there is one verse stands out for me:

"The work and prayers
of centuries have brought us to this day
What shall be our legacy?
What will our children say?...
Let me know in my heart
When my days are through
America
America
I gave my best to you."

"Let us add our own work and prayers to the unfolding story of our nation. If we do this then when our days are through our children and our children's children will say of us they gave their best. They did their duty. They healed a broken land. My fellow Americans, I close today where I began, with a sacred oath. Before God and all of you I give you my word. I will always level with you. I will defend the Constitution. I will defend our democracy. I will defend America. I will give my all in your service thinking not of power, but of possibilities. Not of personal interest, but of the public good. And together, we shall write an American story of hope, not fear. Of unity, not division. Of light, not darkness. An American story of decency and dignity. Of love and of healing.

Of greatness and of goodness. May this be the story that guides us. The story that inspires us. The story that tells ages yet to come that we answered the call of history. We met the moment. That democracy and hope, truth and justice, did not die on our watch but thrived. That our America secured liberty at home and stood once again as a beacon to the world. That is what we owe our forebearers, one another, and generations to follow. So, with purpose and resolve we turn to the tasks of our time. Sustained by faith. Driven by conviction. And, devoted to one another and to this country we love with all our hearts. May God bless America and may God protect our troops. Thank you, America."

|| The World || The Dream of Justice For All Will Be Deferred No Longer: Joe Biden Sworn In As the 46th President of the United States of America ||

|| Wednesday: January 20: 2021: Munayem Mayenin || á. The fact is this, that Mr Joe Biden has been sworn in as the 46th President of America, so has been Ms Kamala Harris as the 46th Vice President at noon today; there is no other 'alternative fact' about this! This is the truth, the reality. The truth, the reality: the ultimate validity of our existence, to which, must we, at all times, remain grounded, resolutely, which, in turn, means that we remain absolutely grounded to the architectonics of rationality, its architecture, its mechanisms, its systems and its processes, in the grid of learning, knowledge and wisdom, formed of the all the branches of science and mathematics and all other learning disciplines or, in other words, that we follow reason, science, evidence and common sense and all that shall equip us, strengthen us, enlightened us and empower us to remain on that path of solidity and protect us from falling into self-destructive delusions!

This is what the distorteddia have been seeking to do worldwide: to destroy, devastate, distort, fabricate, manufacture an alternative to reality, to truth and these are the 'weapons' the 'political opportunists and mudslingers' have begun to use to their advantage as the distorteddia kept on making money and they have transformed capitalism into pseudonomics along the way. Must we remain resolute and grounded in reality and in truth: grounded in the realities of the humanity and goodness of the individual humanity, of the families, of the networks of families, communities, agencies and organisations and the ever-living, ever-growing stronger, ever-going, combined ecology of that humanity and goodness in the wider civic society. It is time to reassert this commitment and seek and strive to get back to that humanity and goodness and reject 'opinion fascism', 'the pseudo puritan false morality', where, while the world is getting drowned in utter injustices, hypocrisy, contradictions, immorality, consumption, vaguism and debauchery, hunger, destitution, rough-sleeping, homelessness, malnutrition, prejudice, hatred, overwhelming poverty in every sphere of existence for the vast majority and much more besides, the distorteddia present a fabricated 'pseudo puritan false morality', where the very people, involved in this opine their way into this pseudo puritan false morality! And the ever-toxic, ever-poisonous voyeurism and reaching for the gutter come with that.

Reality and truth can not be replaced; nor can there be versions of them. There is no alternative to reality or the truth. They can not be replicated, concocted, brewed or invented or worked up or out. The reality is what it is; so is the truth. Albert Einstein was the scientist, who brought to the world Theory of Relativity and this is the truth. There is no opinioneeering about it! There is no alternative version of it. The truth is this: that America houses a vast majority of its people in poverty inside it; it houses the most disempowered working humanity inside it. And, the truth is this, sadly: that America is the richest country in the world while people are rough-sleeping in its streets, there are countless homeless across the land without any hope. People are going hungry or suffering malnutrition. Injustice of myriad of kinds is the sad reality across America! These truths have to be acknowledged and responded to for this is unsustainable. Mr Biden has spoken about possibilities: indeed, possibilities; except, he would be the first to admit that in today's America that possibilities are gated, shut-out and boarded up against the vast multitude of Americans for them eternal disenfranchisement, perpetual disempowerment and ever-going and ever-growing poverty and inequality are the reality.

The truth is said to be hard: to be honest, that is not rational a conclusion. The truth is the easiest, the most natural and the most joyous of reality for the entire universe is an expression of this. We make it hard because of our efforts to try to bend it to suit us and our interests. The truth is this: that we are, as humanity, an eternal goodness, unfolding a forever-going infinity. The truth is this: every human soul dreams of living and existing in goodness and peace; but our systems are such that they come in the way and we get disarrayed and dysfunctional and we get into all sorts of delusions and errors and, when we get to be manipulated, directed and herded, we get into muddles and in these muddles and muddy and murky waters, those, 'opportunists and mudslingers' 'fish' for their own agenda and interests and seek to lead us astray.

America has a new government, the Biden-Harris Administration. Democracy and the rule of law have prevailed, despite the vicious 'war', run against them and, it is time for Americans and America to rise to the challenges the country faces and the challenges the world and world humanity face. We live not in the past nor can we 'fix' or change the past but, we can, absolutely, dedicate all our present into shaping the future so that the present, that dawns tomorrow and all tomorrows are dreamed of, chosen, striven and worked for so that that present of the future says: there is human choice and there is human work. We have dreamed, chosen and worked for this future in our present and here it is as now as our present: it is not imposed on us but we chose it and worked for it. "The dream for justice for all will be deferred no longer." said Mr Biden at his inaugural address to the nation. America and the world shall wait for him to deliver: to bring down and shatter those gates, that gate out, shut-out and obstruct people out of the nation's wealth, opportunities and possibilities.

The entirety of his speech can be summarised in this sentence: "The dream of justice for all will be differed no longer." This is the call of action: to rise to the many-fold challenges of the country, of America and the American people and the world and world humanity and go about 'to seek: to try: to do: to change: to make better the human condition' and that equates to working the hardest to bring back America closer to its ideals and lead the country back to the world and among the world humanity with all its strengths of imagination, ingenuity and creativity to work together to deal with the existential challenges we face. Starting with America is this 'justice': America must seek to achieve a sustainable future in every possible meaning of the word and it must do so by rising to seek to be a just and equitable society for all. It is no longer time to keep talking about it but get to work: We hope that the Biden-Harris Administration with all the new blood it has, already, gathered together in it, shall get to that work earnestly, resolutely and with determination and resolve.

|| North America: USA || Joe Biden on Day One as the President of America: Actions to Deliver: Relief For Families: Address the COVID-19 Pandemic: Provide Economic Relief: Tackle Climate Change and Advance Racial Equity ||

|| Wednesday: January 20: 2021 || α. Today, hours after taking the oath of office, Mr Biden, the US President, will take a historic number of actions to deliver immediate relief for families across America, that are struggling in the face of converging crises. He is expected to sign a combination of executive orders, memoranda, directives and letters to take initial steps to address these crises, including, by changing the course of the COVID-19 pandemic, providing economic relief, tackling climate change and advancing racial equity.

As well as, re-joining the World Health Organisation:WHO, Mr Biden will sign the instrument to re-join the Paris Climate Agreement. The instrument will be deposited with the United Nations today and the United States will officially become a Party again 30 days later. He will sign an Executive Order, that takes critical first steps to address the climate crisis, create good union jobs and advance environmental justice, while reversing the previous administration's harmful policies. The order jump-starts swift, initial action to tackle the climate crisis by: directing all executive departments and agencies to, immediately, review and take appropriate action to address federal regulations and other executive actions, taken during the last four years, that were harmful to public health, damaging to the environment, unsupported by the best available science or otherwise not in the national interest, including, agency actions.

Directing agencies to consider revising vehicle fuel economy and emissions standards, methane emissions standards and appliance and building efficiency standards to ensure that such standards cut pollution, save consumers money and create good union jobs;

Directing the Department of Interior to protect our nation's treasures by reviewing the boundaries and conditions of the Grand Staircase-Escalante, Bears Ears, Northeast Canyons, and Seamounts Marine National Monuments and placing a temporary moratorium on all oil and natural gas leasing activities in the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge;

Re-establishing the Inter-agency Working Group on the Social Cost of Greenhouse Gases:GHG and directing the issuance of an interim social cost of GHG schedule to ensure that agencies account for the full costs of GHG emissions, including, climate risk, environmental justice and inter-generational equity; and Revoking, revising or replacing additional Executive Orders, Presidential Proclamations, Memoranda and Permits, signed over the past four years, that do not serve the US national interest, including, revoking the Presidential permit, granted to the Keystone XL pipeline.

Mr Biden will take action, not just to reverse the gravest damages of the Trump Administration but, also, to start moving the country forward. These actions are bold, begin the work of following through on his promises to the American people and, importantly, fall within the constitutional role for the President. Today, the President is to launch his '100 Days Masking Challenge', asking the American people to do their part and mask up for 100 days. The Centres for Disease Control and Prevention has found that masks 'are a critical tool in the fight against COVID-19, that could reduce the spread of the disease.

Mr is, also, doing his part by issuing an Executive Order today, requiring masks and physical distancing in all federal buildings, on all federal lands and by federal employees and contractors. He is, also, asking the Department of Health and Human Services and Centre for Disease Control to engage with state, local, tribal and territorial officials to implement masking, physical distancing and other CDC public measures to stop the spread of COVID-19.

The President will take action to cease the previous Administration's process of withdrawing from the World Health Organisation:WHO, an entity, that is critical to co-ordinating the international response to COVID-19, advancing preparedness for future epidemics and pandemics and improving the health of all people. The Biden-Harris Administration, with Dr Tony Fauci as Head of Delegation, will participate in the WHO Executive Board meeting, that is on-going this week. Dr Fauci will deliver remarks as Head of Delegation to the Executive Board on January 21. Once the United States resumes its engagement with the WHO, the Biden-Harris Administration will work with WHO and America's partners to strengthen and reform the organisation, support the COVID-19 health and humanitarian response and advance global health and health security.

The federal government must act swiftly and aggressively to combat COVID-19. Mr Biden will sign an Executive Order, creating the position of COVID-19 Response Co-ordinator, who will report directly to the President and be responsible for co-ordinating all elements of the COVID-19 response across government, including, managing efforts to produce, supply and distribute personal protective equipment, vaccines and tests. In addition, this Executive Order restores, the NSC Directorate for Global Health Security and Biodefense to focus on domestic and global biological threats, play a critical role in stopping the COVID-19 pandemic, and prevent future biological catastrophes.

The COVID-19 pandemic has triggered an almost unprecedented housing affordability crisis in America. Today, one in five renters and one in ten homeowners with a mortgage are behind on payments. Mr Biden is asking the Centres for Disease Control and Prevention to consider immediately extending the federal eviction moratorium until, at least, March 31, 2021, while calling on Congress to provide much needed rental assistance and extend it further. And, he will ask the Department of Veterans Affairs, Department of Agriculture and the Department of Housing and Urban Development, to consider extending foreclosure moratoria for federally guaranteed mortgages and continuing applications for forbearance for federally guaranteed mortgages until, at least, March 31, 2021. On Tuesday, the Federal Housing Finance Agency:FHFA extended its foreclosure and eviction moratoria until February 28, 2021. The President will call on the agency to consider extending the foreclosure moratoria further and continue forbearance applications for all loans guaranteed by Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac.

Currently, borrowers owe over $01.5 trillion in federal student loans. Borrowers of all ages are, often, faced with a tough trade-off between making their student loan payments, investing in their long-term financial future or paying their bills. The pandemic has, only, increased the economic hardship of the millions of Americans, who have student debt. Mr Biden is asking the Department of Education to consider immediately extending the pause on interest and principal payments for direct federal loans until, at least, September 30, 2021.

The President is committed to his equity agenda, grounded in advancing racial justice and building back better for communities, who have been underserved, including, people of all ethnic and minority backgrounds and Americans with disabilities, LGBTQ+ Americans, religious minorities and rural and urban communities, facing persistent poverty. Analysis suggests that closing racial gaps in wages, housing credit, lending opportunities and access to higher education, would amount to an additional $05 trillion in gross domestic product in the American economy over the next five years and create millions of new jobs.

Mr Biden will sign executive actions today to: Launch a Whole-of-Government Initiative to Advance Racial Equity. He will sign an Executive Order, beginning the work of embedding equity across federal policy-making and rooting out systemic racism and other barriers to opportunity from federal programmes and institutions. The Executive Order will define equity as the consistent and systematic fair, just and impartial treatment of all individuals, including, individuals, who belong to underserved communities, such as, Black, Latino, Indigenous and Native American persons, Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders and other persons of ethnic backgrounds; LGBTQ+ persons; people with disabilities; religious minorities, persons, who live in rural areas; and persons otherwise affected by persistent poverty or inequality.

In this Executive Order, the President will rescind the Trump Administration's 1776 Commission, which has sought to erase America's history of racial injustice.

President Mr Biden will sign an Executive Order to revoke the prior Administration's orders, setting out an unlawful plan to exclude non-citizens from the census and apportionment of Congressional representatives. The President is committed to preserving and fortifying DACA. Today, he will sign a Presidential Memorandum, directing the Secretary of Homeland Security, in consultation with the Attorney General, to take all appropriate actions under the law to achieve that goal. The Presidential Memorandum will, also, call on Congress to enact legislation providing permanent status and a path to citizenship for people, who came to America as children and have lived, worked and contributed to our country for many years.

Mr Biden will sign an Executive Action putting an end to the Muslim Ban, a policy rooted in religious animus and xenophobia. He will sign an Executive Order revoking a Trump Executive Order, that directed harsh and extreme immigration enforcement. This revocation will allow the Department of Homeland Security and other agencies to set civil immigration enforcement policies, that best protect the American people and are in line with our values and priorities.

By proclamation, Mr Biden will today declare an immediate termination of the national emergency declaration, that was used as a pretext to justify some of the funding diversions for the wall. The proclamation directs an immediate pause in wall construction projects to allow a close review of the legality of the funding and contracting methods used and to determine the best way to redirect funds that were diverted by the prior Administration to fund wall construction.

The President will sign a Presidential Memorandum to extend until June 30, 2022 the long-standing Deferred Enforced Departure:DED designation for Liberians, who have been in the United States for many years

Among many other things, Mr Biden day one executive actions will protect workers from COVID-19, including, by ensuring that federal employees and contractors wear masks and follow other CDC guidelines, setting an example for employers around the country. They will provide relief to American workers, who have lost their jobs or had their hours or wages slashed through no fault of their own, by extending the pause on student debt and the eviction and foreclosure moratorium. They will help spur the growth of American manufacturing and supply chains, competitiveness of our industries and creation of good union jobs by directing agencies to consider revising vehicle fuel economy and emissions standards, methane emissions standards, and appliance and building efficiency standards. And, they'll take steps to prevent workplace discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation and gender identity and revoke President Trump's damaging executive order, which limited critical diversity and inclusion training in the workplace.

This Is the Body of Work, by Munayem Mayenin, That Has Brought Into Existence the Philosophy and Vision of Humanics

Dehumanisation of Humanity: Volume One: Published: July: 2007: 978-1-4477-1330-2

Mayenin worked and developed the very critique of capitalism and Marxism while at university in which he had envisioned the world's future in humanics for humanity to reach and achieve liberty and equality for all humanity, which capitalism has continually slaughtered and Marxism failed desperately, even, to understand, let alone, to know or show how to seek and achieve them. Some of these works were published in publications in the early 00s and the volume was published as a book in 2007. There are three other volumes of this planned work, yet to be published.

Humanics The Foundation: Volume One: Published: December 06: 2017: ISBN: 978-0-244-34575-4

This piece of work elaborated the philosophy of humanics and presented the idea of human enterprise and how it works to enable humanity to conduct the human economical endeavours in humanics.

Humanics The Humanicsonomics: Volume Two: Published: June 12: 2018: ISBN: 978-0-244-48334-0

This is the political economics or humanicsonomics of humanics in human enterprise. This volume presents the political economics of humanics and envisioned world's future as two distinct phases: pre-humanical or Kapitalawnomics phase in which capitalism is saved from pseudonomics and brought under the absolute and complete control and power of the rule of law so to make it serve the people at all times and not the rich and through this phase, humanity brings into existence the humanical Building-Block Foundational Human Rights and end capitalism's Poverty Paradigm, that causes all of the high-cruelties, high-brutalities and high-barbarities, that are inflicted on the vast number of humanity on this earth. Further to this, this work advances the system and mechanism of human enterprise and envisioned at the end of the development of Kapitalawnomics human societies will have developed enough to be able and equipped to try and seek to bring into existence humanical societies, that will begin to form a grid of humanical societies into a universal humanical civilisation on earth.

The Humanics Elleesium Declaration 2019: The Humanicsxian Manifesto: Published: April 06: 2019: ISBN: 978-0-244-76474-6

This short piece of work nano-summarised the entire body of Munayem Mayenin's works on humanics. This calls on the working humanity of the world to rise, organise and united under new and humanical political forces, parties and organisations to seek and try to bring about a humanical world movement to lead humanity to equality and liberty.

Humanics The Humanicsovics: Volume Three: To Be Published Later This Year

This volume presents the political philosophy of humanics and the means to deliver that political philosophy by and through humanicsovics, humanical direct form of democracy without party politics whereby each and every individual human being becomes his:her own High Representative and they all run their society's human affairs management together as individuals, working together as scientists and mathematicians without any political parties.

Alphansum Sovereign Necessarius: Published April 14: 2020: ISBN: 978-0-244-58241-8

Although, this large volume is of metaphysical work, it has brought the whole humanical universal view in a harmonious outlook, unifying all expressions, fields, areas and arenas of human existence and in this process this work envisioned the coming into existence the new branches of science, that has already been mentioned.

|| Humanity Will Continue to Live an Inferior Life Than What is Possible Until the Two Halves, Women and Men, with All Individuals in Them, are Absolutely, Fundamentally and Jubilantly Equal at Liberty. Humanity, Therefore, Is Not and Can Not Be Free Until All Humans are Equals for Only by the Yardstick of This Equality Their State of Being Free Can Be Measured. In Other Words, There Can Not Exist Liberty Unless There Exists Equality Between and Among All Humans and This State of Equality Can Not Come to Exist So Long There Remain Two Groups of Humans: The Powerful and The Powerless: Whereby the Former Controls the Later and Creates, Maintains and Carries Forward the Perpetual State of Inequality: Economically, Politically, Judicially, Constitutionally, Socially, Culturally and Spiritually. To Reach the State of Equality and Liberty, the Task Before Humanity is, Therefore, to Change This State by Taking Away Ownership and

Money and, with Them, the Power They Generate and Confer, That Lets One Small Group of Humans, The Powerfulls, Subjugating the Vast Multitude of Humans, The Powerless, Under Their Dictatorship. For Only by Taking Away 'the Gun' of the Power of the Powerfulls, Humanity Can Bring About the State of Liberty, as Well as, Equality at Once: Equality and Liberty Can Not and Do Not Exist Separately But Together and Simultaneously. Equality and Liberty Exist as The Promethumean Fire: In Which There is the Light and There is the Heat in One Flame: The Humanion Stands Here on the Path of Humanics: A State of Liberty for All Humanity at Equality. The Promethumean: Where Prometheus is Not Seen as a Man But a Human: In Short, Regine Humanics Foundation Ltd and The Humanion Stand for These and Exist and Work for the Promotion of This Vision of Humanics for a Better Human Condition for All Humanity Across the Mother Earth on the Mother Universana: We Invite You All for Your Support: Join Us in Telling the World and World Humanity That: An Infinitely Better Human Condition for All Humanity Across the Mother Earth IS Possible. || Regine Humanics Foundation Ltd ||

The world has, apparently, accepted that Capitalism is the High Pinnacle of All Systems and, some still dream that Marxism will rescue humanity from this Killing Mechanism Capitalism, we refuse to subscribe to that. Humanics is the Post-Marxist and Post-Capitalistic World View of What Humanity can be and what it can do and how infinitely better a human condition can be created in a Humanical Society, by eradicating ownership and money and by establishing belongingship in human enterprise, setting all humans at liberty and equality under the rule of law in natural justice with a direct form of democracy, humanics calls it, Humanicsovics, in which, each human soul is her:his own High Representative. In this, Humanics is the Minority Vision and we do not and can not expect millions and billions of people supporting our vision today but We Whole-Heartedly Believe That ONE DAY This Humanity Shall BE ALL HUMANICAL: By When: We Know Not But This: That Being a Monstrous Killing Mechanism Capitalism IS Unsustainable: The World Shall Change One Day and Every Change Begins with an Idea, with a Vision:

We invite you to Envision the Vision and Philosophy of Humanics and Support The Humanion, The Humanion Portable Daily, The Humanion Larnaarch and The Foundation to Keep Taking Forward the Vision and Philosophy of Humanics, to Keep on Challenging Capitalism's Poverty Paradigm, for an Infinitely Better Humanity in an Infinitely Better Human Condition for All Humanity Across Mother Earth. Thank You.

There can not be any sustainability until and unless we take the view that sustainability comes as philosophical, political philosophical, political economical, ethical, moral, sociological, educational, jurisprudential, socio-cultural and ecological and humanical spiritual so that we are able to create a sustainable 'architecture' of existence in a clean, green, circular and sustainable political economics, that underpins all forms and expressions of sustainability and when such an 'architecture' exists within the Larin Paraske Maxim or Oath: Do No Harm to Anyone or Anything: all things and all living forms must have equitable status in the sphere of all existence or all life on earth, with an emphasis on the Universana. Because humanity does not just exist on earth but it does so in the Sunnara, in the Home Bay of the Milky Way Galaxy in the vast expanse of the Universe, our home Universana. Dear Reader, we are on the path of humanics, please, tell the world and world humanity that humanics has arrived on earth from 'the without of human imagination', learning, questioning and thoughts, gained from the eternal walks of this human soul's eternal journey on the eternal path of eternal learning, with its humanical metaphysics, humanical philosophy as natural science, humanical psychology, humanical political philosophy, humanical political economics, humanical jurisprudence, humanical sociology, humanical moral science and humanical arealism. For capitalism has created global warming and climate change and wracked the earth with environmental degradations and pollutions in all spheres, where bio-diversity is getting lost at an alarming rate as the earth keeps on being heated up. Humanity is devastated by capitalism's poverty-paradigm, delivering all its high-cruelties, high-brutalities and high-barbarities. This is why it is paramount that that we speak up and out and try our hardest to inspire faith, hope, determination and resolution among all humanity of this world, women and men, that we shall not just accept this 'sentence of doom', that capitalism's mindless consumerism, infinite greed of infinite profiteering, decadent voguism and venomous voyeurism, orchestrated by the Distorteddia have brought us and, yet, that we can, we should, we ought, we must keep on trying: 'to seek to try: to do: to change: to make better the human condition' and we do so as one humanity, as women and men, working together as one, in unison with the same aim, same goal, same objective: to get all humanity to liberty, equality, fairness and justice in the rule of law in natural justice, with a purpose and meaning to our existence, where we all humanity, with our all-unity and all-diversity, exist as one humanity naturale on one Mother Earth, in one Sunnara, in one Home Bay Milky Way Galaxy in the one Universana with the humanical foundation of faith: humanity is an infinity unfolding itself, in which, we are all-for-one and one-for-all.
