03-Ever-Light Ever-Love

Eternal Homer you sung your eternal songs
Here I sing new songs eternal in new forms
Neither the footsteps of Achilles nor of her
The legendary beautiful Helen nor their false

Steps nor pride nor you find violent killers in Vile rage rampaging speaking of reason but Sacrificing humanity with intent to harm as They go justifying their greed and gore for it

Was to be the downfall of all that Greek built
The destruction of all that Troy crafted out yet
Latium got built in all that callous brutal culls

Wise Odysseus finds home in the end but here
I sing the cell ee neuron into my Larantium as Love fulfilling the law of ever-light of ever-love

We are more than our neurons or their combinations, co-relations, conjunctions, functions and interactions, that are conducted through the nervous system, central and peripheral, somatic and visceral and their gap junctions, synapses or action potentials. We are more than the cells, tissues, organs, systems, DNAs, RNAs, genes and chromosomes, telomerases shortening or lengthening, the vitamins, the anti-vitamins, the precursors, the metabolites, the pathways, the afferent and the efferent and their flows and their ultimate unification into a whole mechanism and system of magnificence into giant architectures of many a system working in concert and harmony as it all faces the wider architectonics of the outer environment and the universe and all her matters, forces, powers, energies and variables, that are always a-motional and a-changing, yet, by constantly seeking to establish an ever-going evolving path of homeostasis, the physiology does succeed. It is like giant orchestra seeking to play its symphony while a wider, almost infinite orchestra engulfs it and its playing and it must find its way of creating a co-efficient way of bringing all together and create an apparent 'ozone-layer' so to keep that out what must remain so and let that in what must do so. Homeostasis is human physiology's symphony, an ever-waterlily, ever-floating on the ever-ocean of the ever-changing universe.

04: One That Wonders Becomes One With the Light

Imagine a knife of light held onto the point of incision
Between the unwavering thumb and the pointer
The mind focused beyond the immediate opening
Consequences of cuts wounds bleedings pains infections scars

That are likely to be inflict-ons on the being of the patient when The physician's mind is focused in the ultimate image
Of the patient being cured of the ailments beyond
The transitional imperfections of the procedure

That mind is where the light is sourced and off
There comes to origin of that what shines
In her eyes full of compassion care and kindness

There I leave my lines before the eyes the wonder
Windows of the soul's silver solitude in blue shores
Love is for what love does a joy a silence wondering

And I imagine Laniakea Supercluster spreading 520 million light years, that immensity of a tiny cosmosian space-time of the part of the wider heaven of the spectacles of lights of the cascading of galaxies and their abounding endless spread of the stars and their systems, their planetary systems, their planets and exoplanets, their moons and satellites among which is nestled somewhere the nano-spec of the Milky Way Galaxy and in that nanoscale spread there are the little Mother Earth all blue and her teeny-tiny Moon all silver, I imagine the whole human physiology as a covered-up darkness as the spread of the Laniakea and within that dark heavens of this physiology and in there the Mother-Earth Heart and from her grows at a little distance like a kite, the higher-tree, the Silver Brain-Moon, and between them there are trillions of cells and each one of them is a system of their own and they are all in that dark heaven and all the trillions of biological mechanisms, systems and processes are unfolding their activities in chemical and biochemical reactions and electric and magnetic and electromagnetic expanse, seeking to distribute Adenosine Triphosphate, ATP, o the beautiful currency of the human physiology, among all the cells and muscles and systems so that all work in concert to create, sustain, hold and maintain homeostasis and all still are in that darkness and I then imagine the heart with all the blood ready with the Promethean lights of nutrition, oxygen, immunological apparatus and all other vital supplies and the Purkinje's Fibres work and the heart forces that blood out to the trillions of places it is to rush and run with the Orphean cargo and the dark rivers, from the largest to the smallest, keep on rising with high tides and reach their destinations and suddenly all the trillions of the 'abodes of the sacred sanctum of life', these cells, light up the whole darkness of the physiology and above there is the spectacle of the human brain and the whole heart and all the various parts and systems and organs and the Laniakea of the Human physiology lights up and that space is spread far more than 520 million light years so that in it each light years is nanocromised. And now I imagine Beethoven's Ninth Symphony playing and all the waters are abounding and at the central part the red rose of the heart rises all-ways and soon it reaches the brain, that runs down through the spinal cord and it looks like a mythical light-luminous bride beautifully dressed within the myeloid sheath and around her the mythical flowing river of the cerebrospinal fluids and the music flows over that ever-flowing river and this sanctum of magnanimous beauty! O what an awe and now hear Sibelius' 8th Symphony and both symphonies are intermixing and the human soul is a-motion, a-flow, a-glow and an alive of astonishing, amazing, breathtaking ecology, that nothing could dare explain but 'kneel in wonder' as Rainer Maria Rilke writes about this 'field of power'! This awe, it takes the greatest of vision, to be elvisioned and, once done, this vision is an infinite symphony imprinted on that soul.

05: Between Two Naught-Points

In the absence of motion inertia follows as death
Of life within physiology's external solidity for Motion is the mechanism that unfolds time into Space ending motion that was anchored in antimatter

That drives this untanglement by the architectonics
Where architectures craft the seismic synaptics of Mechanisms where systems weave out through Processes so that life unfolds the untanglement and

All is spread out into space that resides in anti-space
A zero-state as anti-time as anti-matter does signify
As all motions come to an end to demonstrate that

All-around them the zero-state eats away their flow
They arise off naught to reach the same very naught
Around the points of life reigns eternal point of death

The tiny cell stands separate as being a living unity of itself next to the atom as non-living unit of itself, both a balanced, closed-up system, placed within a giant super closed-up system, where all forces, powers and energies are always balanced and between them run their courses of illuminations the electricity, photon and, thus, electromagnetism and arises through the magnificent engineering marvel of photosynthesis, translating the solar energy into biochemical one and into carbohydrate matters arise towards forming the magic, web and ecology of life on earth.

And this cell, a blocked-up, closed unit of living, contains the magic of a membrane, as, if, a regalia of jewels, marvels and precious stones, made of a double layer of phospholipids, only 10 nm thick, with protein studded in and on each side, with it having a water-soluble charged phosphate head and water-insoluble non-charged lipid tail and so arranged these are that the heads are in water at each side as their tails are hidden in the centre. Lipid-containing lipoproteins and carbohydrate-containing glycoproteins stud the membrane. And some of these, act as receptors for hormones as others act as neurotransmitters while others may act as ion channels. And inside the beautiful regalia of a cover and entrance gate of this membrane, this cell is equipped with all its wonders of the nucleus, in which it contains its DNA, while outside it, the cell is a majesty of ever-going sophistry, as, if, a living breathing babushka doll and there are organelles, vesicles, golgi complex, golgi apparatus, the mitochondrion with its own DNA set and the wonderment of the sophistry, the sublime artistry in the 23 pairs of chromosomes and how they are folded and where the genome is rolled into the DNA into which are instructions as to how to transcribe and translate so that RNAs are made so that specific genes now can do their tasks and synthesise the necessary proteins. The bases and the sugars into a double-helix of life with nucleotides connecting them and with that the endless cascading of paths for the majestic 21 amino acids to start their march past of enabling life. Beethoven's Ninth Symphony plays on, Sibelius' lost Eighth Symphony plays on and the symphonies of the blood coursing through the arteries and capillaries spread out, the symphonies of the veins bringing the blood back to the heart go on and the flowing, glowing cerebrospinal fluid and the lymphatic fluid, the blood plasma contains the magical matrix of the space, that vibrates and shakes the space-time's fabrics and music rises beyond-reach towards all-where and the Mother-Earth Heart shines in glory and from her grows at a little distance like a kite, the higher-tree, the Silver Brain-Moon, stand glorious, magnanimous tree of life: and around them the darkness sparkles, shimmers and glimmers as the immense heaven Laniakea does.

05: The Ventricular Foundation of the Brain

This human brain made of softest of matters inside
The oxymoron of the skull the hardest of the same
Matter yet where is its foundational strength did you Ever wonder Doetsopher since we have not found any

Text referring to that but here is our take and you look At the mid-architectural skeleton of the brain and you See it the wonder-construct of the Ventricles as if it is The Atlas to carry the gravity of the brain and keep it

Steady and strongly balanced at the centre with four
Of them constructed like the sanctum of the cephalon Connection magnifico and through this construct is Created and supplied the Cerebrospinal Fluid that Offers the fluid dynamics of safety and security of The brain so that the whole is kept at homeostasis

There I imagine being in the depth of the brain at the core, just above the brain stem, where stand the thalamus, the hypothalamus, as being the diencephalon, infundibulum, tuber cinereum, pituitary gland, the midbrain, pons, medulla oblongata and next to these, beautifully spread, almost, like a heart, the cerebellum with her own two hemispheres and there goes out downwards the spinal cord like a beautiful root heading towards the depth of the earth and here I imagine being inside my mother's womb and try to envision this brain and I could see at the end of fourth week there are brain vesicles and soon these are prosencephalon, that will become the forebrain, mesencephalon or midbrain and rhombencephalon or hindbrain. By the fifth week, prosencephalon develops into diencephalon and telencephalon and rhombencephalon into myelencephalon and metencephalon; however, mesencephalon remains unchanged. Thus, telencephalon into cerebrum, diencephalon into thalamus and hypothalamus, mesencephalon into midbrain, metencephalon into pons and cerebellum and myelencephalon into medulla oblongata. And I do find the ventricles of the brain, as, if, a central supporting system of solidity around whose trellis the softest of matters, the brain, grow out and keep at a central hold.

06: Yet Love the Ventricles

And the two lateral form the strong duo-strands
As though a phoenix looking ahead though its Body flows downwards as it becomes the third
The interventricular foramen of Monro flows in

And much lower into the down-hill a diamond Shape crafted with apertures lateral median as The cerebellum with her duo-wings hemispheres
Give way the rooting of the beautiful ventricular

Solidity within which is created the oceanic-flowing
Fluidity of vital Cerebrospinal Fluids each ventricle
Makes a little as if it is a community of four everyone

Gives something to life something for life and motion
And flow and glow shining forth in the dark keeping Safe keeping sound I lack the skill to sing their glory

And I remain at the centre of the brain and imagine, the parts forming that central core where I am, is taken out so that I could see what are there nearby and bump onto the two lobes: the island and the limbic lobe and from there I rise and rise and find all these pia mater, dura mater and the arachnoid and come across grey and white matters etc and I have just come up and do realise that this brain has been made into two hemispheres by the central fissure and there are gyri and sulci playing a matter-fold and gap, matter-fold and gap and the brain is cascading inwards as it flows outwards.

And I count on the island and the limbic lobe, the anterior, the parietal, the occipital, the posterior and the temporal lobes, all are cascading inwards into themselves. And in this maze are now covered the entire nervous system and at the central power-height stays the 'command-post': the neuron. Hundreds of billions of them are spread and posted at their places, spaces and stations with the tasks and commands, with the power of their cell bodies and dendrites and their axons so to bring about magic of the synapses and always at-the-go and there along with all other systems, digestive, cardiovascular, urinary, respiratory, skeletal, endocrine, integumentary, lymphatic, immune, muscular, reproductive, they within the brain form the Nervous System, as central with the brain, spinal cord and the sensory parts and peripheral as somatic for voluntary and visceral for involuntary and the brain and its Nervous System at the helm, the Central Nervous System, crisscross the brain as the heart with her atria, ventricles, arteries, veins and capillaries do the same while the lymphatic system ranges itself around while the lungs keep at work as the kidneys do as the pancreas does as the digestive system does as the glands do, as proteins do, as hormones do, as carbohydrates do, as nerves do, as the muscles do so that one looks at a bone and finds it is a construct for systems to 'trellis' over it and muscles and ligaments and tendons keep connecting the bones and over them 'flow' the arteries, veins and capillaries, the systems of nerves, the lymphatics, the blood, the immune system, the nutrition, the oxygen, the carbon die oxide and everything runs the course at a dynamic steady state of homeostasis. And 12 cranial nerves establish their high-way codes of majesty in olfaction and optic and oculomotor and mark their trigeminal and glossopharyngeal and hypoglossal and the mighty Vagus cares of nothing but keeps on coursing to places where it is needed and beneath the bones there lives the sleeping princess of the bone-marrow forest about which the heart has hardly any awareness but there produced blood almost at-will as and when and as often necessary among many other things.

07: Sing The Treli Cardia

Inside the dark cavity as if trying to see she stares out
Her face receives the welcome vibrations rising off all The surrounding active matters going on with all they Need to do their parts in the gigantic architectures of

The physiology she being wise just keeps the stare and Minds her tasks ever-on she goes never gets a break as She keeps her focus on the task for all the workers and Working stations must be feed yet look her spread she Grows onto the body's earth as roots the arteries rise Onto the earth-soil as they go a-throbbing forking and

Anastomosing but veins keep their moto follow the lead
Of arteries focus at the throbbing as you go so they keep
On knitting all the earth finally as capillaries they reach all

And the great abundance of beautiful water, mostly in blood is the eternal phoenix of blood plasm and it stretches its eternal wings and on its trellis run and rush and flow and go the blood with her regalia of astonishing cargo and this water is all-where, in in extra-cellular, intra-cellular, inter-cellular and interstitial and the blood, the plasma, the cerebrospinal fluid and the lymphatic fluid and hormones and cholesterols and between and among all these ever-living and ever-dying variable-spread go on the Brownian movements, observance of Fick's law and Ohm's law and much more besides and create the ecology of gradients, of transporters, of pumps, of channels, of active transports, of K⁺ pump, Na⁺, C⁺ and osmosis and osmotic and oncotic pressures and osmolarity and osmolality and flow in and flow out of life's beats and pulses. And mitosis and miosis keep on going, transcription, translation, replication keep on going and the architectures of the DNA, RNA, mRNA, tRNA and the circuits of 21 amino acids cascading into a vineyard of life's hundreds and thousands of avenues of wonders and the cascading of cells: the red blood cells, the white blood cells, the platelets, the stem cells, haematopoietic cells, myeloid cells, lymphoid progenitor cells, dendritic cells, the B-Cells, the T-cells, basophils, neutrophils, the eosinophils, monocytes, megakaryocytes, erythrocytes, lymphocytes, natural killer cells, phagocytes and the pathogens and the cytokines and the chemokines and the enzymes and proenzymes, vitamins and anti-vitamins, microbiota and microbiome, the autoimmunity and allergies, cancers and cancer metastasis, the antibodies and antigens and antibiotic and antiviral and fungal and antifungal and bactericidal and toxins and receptors and systolic and diastolic, pulse and Purkinje's fibres and diffusions and active transport and nutrition of proteins, carbohydrates, vitamins, minerals, essential fatty acids, essential amino acids, water and oxygen and far more besides.

We are an infinity unfolding itself in the name of the human mind, which, through the physiology of what on appearance is a human physique, it becomes, dreams, imagines, creates, loves and does human: the most astonishing of all things, that we find on this Universe. All we have to do is to look at its unity off the billion plus expressions of its self and wonder about its endless expressive diversity off the same self in billion plus instances to realise that this human mind is magnificent a thing for the purpose of which the neurology is given to it as the most sophisticated, most elaborately engineered, most complexity-strewn an architecture, a most awe-inspiring bio-chemico-genetico-mechanism, that we humans will ever see in this Universe; nothing else will ever surpass this magnificence.

08: The Elleesian Symphony

The heart now grew into almost every-iota space taken
By bodies called cells and the cavities in the dark just so Mind their spread as the vibrations keep on coming and Spreading as if the darkness now has a symphony playing

And this heart went up to the Brain and covered her up
Around the Blood Brain Barrier heart does knits herself
Around it she keeps on flowing as the Brain has spread
All across the body the heart and the cephalon two of one

A duo-face one rising and one falling but both flowing
The heart motioning matters as the brain calls power-play
The heart throbs as the brain thinks as one does the other

Keeps at the task neither fails nor falters at the task and O how many a task how many a function now hear that Elleesian Symphony of the mighty brain the mighty heart

And it all begins with the book of genome, that has already been written, that will have all the tools to keep on writing the future of a human physiology and with that begins the human life and soon the cardiology is formed and follows neurology: the duo or the two in one or the one in two: for they, neither ends nor begins alone but, rather, both just clasp, grasp, sew, knit, cut, run, crisscross, bind, bend, blend and flow in, out, between, across, around, over, under through the human physiology in such an infinity of subtle, intricate and sublime artistry, that the entire creation of this Universe does not have a parallel to show next to it. And with this cardiology and neurology and all the rest as the assistantial homeogenesis and withing the bounds and powers of cosmogeogenomodynamics, the human becomes more than a physiology: it becomes a human mind, human soul and that has not been written out unlike the genome, which has been, and, here is, where the entire life of this human mind is, as, if, it has got infinity of white papers bundled into a beautiful blank book, that no one can know how to write but that human mind alone does and this is where humanity is, this is what humanity is and this is how humanity is and this why I am writing this epic nano-song so to write a Beautiful Book out of those blank white pages of that Book, where genome alone can never write a single word unless The Sanctum Mayakardium and The High Neuraneum join forces to make 'one': the one, that is exactly like the heart with two atria; or the one, that is exactly like the brain with two hemispheres: it is two in one and one in two. And this human soul creates its home of peace, of harmony, of equilibrium and homeostasis within the architectonics of human rationality inside this physiology and creates its nine-realms, nine-worlds, nine-universes in imaginium, sereneum, rationium, sophium, cardium, perceptium, sensarium, visionium and imserenesophium. And here is to this awe, to Humanity Naturale: keep on going and unfolding the infinity that you are.

09: The Elleesian Symphony of the Human Soul

And see the ecology of the human soul in nine realms of Awe it is shaped elvision the tree the heart onto body's Earth grows and the brains onto the same earth knits its Clasps and imagine the body's sanctum in the darkness

And let the worlds of the heart and her spread across all Matters shine forth as beautiful red in the dark as the fire
Burns a suns in each of the trillions of cells and over that Galactic spread now suddenly see the mighty spread of

The mighty brain as her 100 billion neurons with their all
Synaptic connections light up whitened blue crisscrossing
The physiology as the red glows in its flowing matters see

And hear the Elleesian Symphony of the soul's nine-worlds
Its imaginium sereneum rationium sophium and cardium
Perceptium sensarium visionium and imserenesophium

Larantia The Elliaad of Medicine

A planned body of works, comprising of 850 Sonnets of Anatomy, Physiology, Cell Biology, Molecular Biology, Biochemistry, Histology, Neurology, Surgery, Haematology, Cardiology, Microbiology, Genetics, Epigenomics, Endocrinology, Paediatrics, Gynaecology, Virology, Bacteriology, Bacteriophasiology, Medicine, Mycology, Pharmacology, Pharmacodynamics, Pharmacokinetics, Biomedicojurisprudence, Chemistry, Physics, Biology, Geology, Seismology, Marine Biology, Zoology, Botany, Cosmology, Astronomy, Astrophysics, Geo-engineering, Hydrology, Mineralogy, Earth Sciences, Geology, Seismology, Geodesy, Plate Tectonics, Cosmography, Mathematics, Geometry, Hearteogenics, Psychology, Psychiatry and more. Songs of The Mechanoprincipium, that shows us the Grid of Learning, Knowledge and Wisdom and the Cardian Architecture of Life in the Cosmosian Delta of the Universes of the Absolute Luminous Still Universe, Duantum Universe and the Matter Universe, between the anti-space or Luminizz and space, between anti-time and time and between anti-matter and matter, by The Universal Laws of The Mechanoprincipium, through the Architectonics of Temporality, by the Architectures, by the mechanisms, by the systems and by the processes motion untangles time into space and arising out of this pursuance of the Grid of Learning. Knowledge and Wisdom the humanical psychology of the human soul as being nine-worlds, nine-realms, nine-universes as one unity of the whole of: imuginium, sereneum, rationium, sophium, cardium, sensarium, perceptium, visionium and imserenesophium. And in the realms of being and becoming everything on this Delta of the Universes follows the Nine-Step-Realm-Path of Being and Becoming: i: Imagination, ii. Prospectivity, iii: Tentativity, iv: Feasibility, v: Possibility, vi: Onwardineity, vii: Probability, viii: Certainty and ix: Reality. This is Larantia The Elliaad of Medicine, sung by Munayem Mayenin out of his ever-travel on the path of pursuing the Grid of Learning, Knowledge and Wisdom: since 1984 he has been walking on this Hippocratic and Socratic Path being an Eternal Learner, a Humanity Naturale.

Humanics: All-For-One-One-For-All

|| Selfishness Is the Most Definitive Way to, Absolutely, Harm One's Very Own Self, As Well As, Everyone and Everything Else: In Other Words, Selfishness Is Nothing But Absolute, Complete and Comprehensive Absence of Questioning or Thoughtfulness or Consideration, Which Makes Us Think and That, Thus, Enables Us to Reach the Rational Base and Foundation in Life and in Existence: This Means That Selfishness, Actually, Is a Terminal Enemy of the Agency of the Human Mind, Which It Keeps on Tearing Away and Apart by Being Devoid of Questioning and Thoughtfulness Because the Very Agency of the Human Mind Is a 'Structure', Created by the Architectonics of the Architecture of Human Rationality, Which Requires a Human Agency of the Human Mind to Put It to Use by Thinking, Questioning, Consideration, Analysing, Learning and Developing, All of Which Selfishness Terminates: Humanics: Humanics: All-For-One-One-For-All ||
